

4-H CLUBS TO EXHIBIT WORK AT HIGH SCHOOL

The program for the annual Adams County 4-H Round-Up to be held Saturday at Gettysburg High School was outlined today by Miss Mary Jane Mickley, county home economics extension representative.

Members of the various 4-H clubs of the county will place exhibits of their work for the year from 9:30 to 10 o'clock Saturday morning. An assembly will be held in the auditorium with Lois Musselman, Orrtanna, as chairman, at 10 o'clock. The remainder of the morning will be devoted to judging of the various exhibits.

Listed as judges are Miss Isabel Myers, assistant state club leader, State College; Miss Ruth Kredell, home economics extension representative of York County, and Miss Jeanne Haxton, home economics extension representative of Fulton County.

Afternoon Program

Julia Hufnagel, Hanover R. 4, will be chairman for the afternoon program beginning at 2 o'clock. Nancy Slusser, Littlestown R. D., will be song leader.

Following the 4-H Club pledge and group singing, Jay Grouse, Gettysburg R. D., will present a report on 4-H Club week and Sarah Rice, Arendtsville, will report on the recent leadership school held for 4-H officials.

A 4-H skit "Polished Polly" and a style show will precede a quiz show conducted by Roland Kline, Bendersville. Atlee Breighner, Littlestown, will present a report on county council activities. Presentation of awards will conclude the session.

MAKE CHANGES FOR DISPLAYING FAIR FLOWERS

Mrs. Wilda McBeth, Biglerville R. 1, head of the flower exhibit department at the South Mountain Fair, which opens next Tuesday, pointed out today that there have been numerous changes in the number of flowers required in various classifications for judging at the flower show at the fair.

"The committee," she said, "hopes to make it easier for exhibitors by combining the recommendations offered in the past by several judges of the flower exhibit. In order to be sure you have the correct number of blooms required will you please check with the new premium list or with members of the following committee:

"Mrs. Wilda McBeth, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Mildred Hildebrand, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. John Wilson, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Robert Elcholtz, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. S. Belle Warren, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. William B. Wilson, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. W. C. Jester, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. John Teeter, Gettysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Craver, Gettysburg; Mrs. Lloyd Benner, Fairfield; Mrs. Gretta Black, Arendtsville; Mrs. Robert Lott, Aspers R. 1; Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg, and Mrs. Henry Wagner, Table Rock."

An appeal was made today by Nelson Weiler, chairman of the horticultural department, to Adams County apple growers to display their products in greater numbers at the fair this year.

Fix Dates For 1953 Adams County Fair

Dates of the 1953 Adams County Fair will be August 11 to 15 inclusive, it was decided at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the fair association.

The fair this year, the fifth since its reorganization, was held from August 12 to 16 inclusive. The fair grounds are located midway between Abbottstown and East Berlin.

A meeting of the association for the election of officers and directors will be held later this fall.

Cpl. Edward Utz Receives Ribbon

Cpl. Edward A. Utz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Utz, Biglerville, was among those awarded the Commendation Ribbon with Metal Pendant by Headquarters 40th Infantry Division on August 21 for "meritorious service in Korea."

Cpl. Utz went overseas last February and was scheduled to leave last Sunday for the United States. He entered the service October 9, 1950, and until last February was stationed at Ft. Dix, N. J. Prior to entering the service he taught school at Mechanicsburg High School. Utz was among the 1,000 soldiers who were recently flown out of an area by helicopters when the Pusan River flooded.

N. O. WILL HOLD PUBLIC SESSION ON NEW PROBLEM

New Oxford Borough Council will hold a meeting September 8, to which the public is invited, to discuss the problem of New Oxford's sewage system.

Borough Council President Fred G. Klunk said today the council will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the New Oxford Community Fire Hall, and expressed the hope that all property owners and other citizens of the community will attend the meeting and express their views on what should be done on the drainage question. "We hope to do a lot of listening at the meeting," Klunk said.

The drainage problem in the borough was made more acute recently when the state ordered the drainage company in that borough to sell to the borough by September 30.

Previously the drainage company was cited by the State Sanitary Water Board and ordered to install a better system complete with sewage disposal plant.

The drainage company claims it does not have enough money to do the required work, and a year ago asked the PUC to permit it to go out of business.

BOARD REVIEWS CHANGES FOR ASSISTANCE

A review of several policies which will be changed for the coming months featured the meeting of the Adams County Board of Public Assistance which was held Wednesday evening in the offices on N. Washington St., with Rev. A. W. Geigley, chairman, presiding.

The board was informed of the increase in the old age survivors insurance (social security) which will start September 1 and the staff will review findings where this will affect cases in which assistance is granted. Another change will involve grants to be computed for living requirements.

Announcement was made of the annual regional conference of the American Public Welfare Association to be held in Philadelphia on October 9, 10 and 11. Board members plan to attend.

Secretary Reports

Mrs. Donald Myers, executive secretary, announced there are 93 fewer caseloads at present than there were last year at the same time. The current caseload is as follows: Old age assistance, 293; blind, 103; aid to dependent children, 85; general assistance, 36; aid to disabled, 36; total, 553.

The next meeting will be held September 24 at the Virginia Mills home of Chairman Geigley.

Attending Wednesday's meeting were Chairman Geigley, L. V. Stock, E. M. Gruver, S. E. Krichten, board members, and Mrs. Myers.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO MRS. COLLINS

Mrs. Elsie A. Collins, 75, wife of Harry J. Collins, 63 Main St., McSherrystown, was found dead in bed Wednesday evening at 11 o'clock. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, investigated and said death was due to a heart attack.

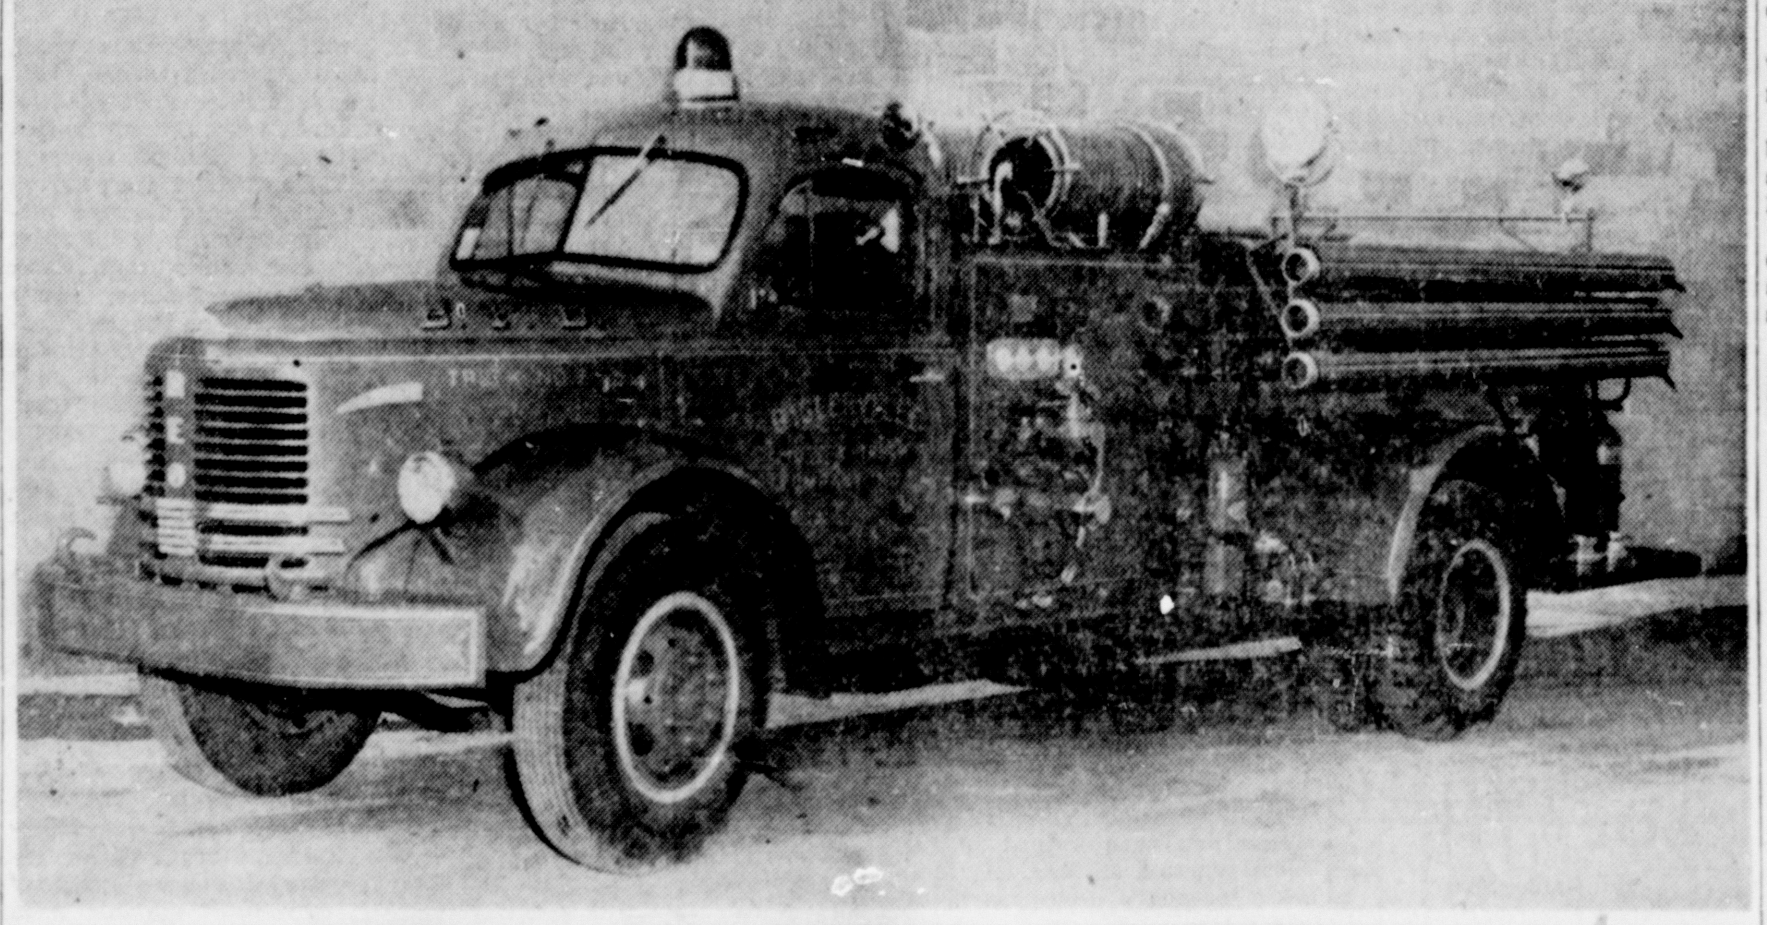

She was a daughter of the late Valentine and Amanda Long.

In addition to her husband she is survived by four children, Dewey, Gettysburg; Harry, Hanover; Mrs. Wilbur Weikert, York, and Earl, at home; seven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; five sisters, Mrs. Ada Spangler, Littlestown; Miss Cora Long, Littlestown; Grace Collins, Gettysburg, and Mrs. John Yercher and Mrs. Charles Grau, both of Hanover.

Interment in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the home from this evening until time of the services. The Rosary will be recited at the home Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

FIREMEN HAVE NO ROOMS FOR STATE MEETING

Gettysburg firemen reached no definite decision at their special meeting Wednesday night at the fire engine house on hotel accommodations for those who plan to attend the state convention in Scranton in October.

Unable to obtain rooms for 60 men reserved at the Plaza Hotel because fire damaged the building last spring and the hostelry, so firemen were notified last week, will not re-open until December 1, the firemen voted against switching their reservations to the Holland Hotel.

Committee members visited Scranton several weeks ago and inspected this and other hotels. They reported unfavorably on one hotel.

Seek Other Rooms

Firemen learned at the meeting, through a telephone conversation with Lt. Joseph Goff of Scranton, chairman of the Scranton Housing Committee, that another hotel, the Wyoming, might be available.

The firemen authorized the Convention Committee to accept reservations for the Gettysburg delegation at this hotel at a price not to exceed $4 per person per night. Definite word on the Wyoming Hotel reservations is not expected until next week.

One-Fourth Of Voters Show Little Interest In Voting; Only 44 Register In 2 Days

The one-fourth of Adams County's citizenry over age 21 who are not able to vote—because they are not registered—seem to be in no hurry to become eligible to cast a ballot in November.

In two days of special registrations only 44 persons have been interested enough to visit the registrars and spend the few moments necessary to make themselves eligible.

Present registration in the county is approaching the 18,000 mark. However, election officials pointed out, the county has 26,610 resident taxpayers, most of whom would be eligible to vote. A few of them are under 18, and some may be duplications, but Clarence C. Smith, clerk of the county election board, estimated that at least 6,000 countians who could vote are not registered, basing his estimate on the figure for resident taxpayers as compared to total number of registered voters.

Republicans Ahead

In the registrations completed since the books were reopened April 28 following the spring primary, the Republicans are running far ahead of the Democrats. At the court house since April 28, 311 Republicans, 129 Democrats and 26 non-partisan voters have registered.

In the special registration Tuesday at Cashtown 13 Republicans and 11 Democrats registered. At Bendersville Wednesday 18 Republicans and four Democrats signed to vote. Today the special registrars are sitting at Fairfield. Friday they will be at Biglerville and Saturday at McSherrystown. On September 2 the traveling registrars will be at York Springs; September 3, at Bonneauville; September 4, at New Oxford; September 5, at East Berlin and September 6, at Littlestown.

The commissioners' office at the court house will open Friday and Saturday evenings, September 12 and 13, from 7 to 10 p.m. for final registrations. The books will close until after the November election at 10 p.m. September 13.

Lightest In Years

In addition, registration can be made at the commissioners' office any day from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Election officials said the registration so far this spring and summer

SALESMAN WINS ACQUITTAL IN MAGAZINE CASE

A jury in Adams County Court Wednesday afternoon returned a directed verdict of innocent in the case of A. E. Nicolet, Baltimore, charged with larceny in connection with the theft of a bundle of magazines in McSherrystown on June 11.

When the prosecution completed its case, showing that a bundle of magazines left by the L. E. Smith distributing agency, Gettysburg, on the steps of Yealy's store in McSherrystown, had disappeared and that on the same date Nicolet sold similar magazines at Shultz's store in Fairfield, Atty. Donald M. Swope, representing Nicolet, moved that a directed verdict of not guilty be entered on the ground that the state had not proven its case.

Following argument by attorneys the motion was granted and the jury was instructed that it was to bring a verdict of innocent in favor of the Baltimore salesman.

Costs Placed On County

Attorney Swope and District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter then presented arguments to the jury concerning payment of costs. The jury retired and spent nearly an hour on this question. They assessed the costs against the county.

Trial began Wednesday afternoon of the morals charge against Paul F. Warren, York Springs R. 2. The jury hearing the case included Mrs. Bertha Martz, Gettysburg; James Weikert, Fairfield; Joseph Bollinger, Conewago Twp.; Rodney C. Eline, McSherrystown; Jacob Minter, Franklin Twp.; George Eberhart, Gettysburg; Mrs. Ida H. Roth, Gettysburg; Leon Smith, Oxford Twp.; S. M. Keagy, Littlestown; Leon A. Hilbert, Conewago Twp.; C. Edgar Glick, Cumberland Twp.; Irvin Gross, Reading Twp.

Warren was found innocent of the morals charge on which he was brought into court but found guilty of another morals charge involving another man's wife after the jury had deliberated for 15 minutes shortly before noon today. The jury retired at 11:45 o'clock and was ready to return shortly before noon. The verdict however was not immediately handed up to the court, pending arrival of attorneys in the case to the court room.

DR. H. D. HOOVER IS SPEAKER AT BIGLER CHURCH

"The Church in the Community" was the topic of the address given by Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, retired professor of practical theology at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, at Centenary EUB Church, Biglerville, Wednesday evening. The service was one of a series being held this week in observance of the dedication of the new church building.

Dr. Hoover said, in part, "Where is the community of Biglerville? It extends as far as the homes of those who deal in it or work in it. It includes the places represented in the school enrollment. Its influence extends to all places to which people born in or living in Biglerville have gone.

IKE READY FOR HARD-HITTING, FIGHTING DRIVE

By JAMES DEVLIN
NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today assured his followers that his preliminary sparring for the presidency was about finished and that soon he will undertake "a fighting, hard-hitting campaign."

He passed the word to William L. Pfeiffer, New York Republican state chairman, and Republican leaders of eight New York City metropolitan counties who visited him at his Hotel Commodore headquarters.

"He assured us he is going to wage a very strong, aggressive campaign, starting soon," Pfeiffer told newsmen.

Early Conference
The Republican leaders met the general at 7:30 a. m. (EST), the earliest that the general has started a day's round of conferences since he set up his headquarters here last week end.

The general was scheduled to keep 12 other appointments with individuals and groups before noon.

Pfeiffer said that he and the metropolitan county leaders discussed communism and corruption as prime campaign issues.

Eisenhower was registering to vote yesterday at the time that his Democratic rival for the presidency, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, was addressing the American Legion convention, and he did not hear the speech. Pfeiffer said he had told Eisenhower he regarded it as "not very forceful."

Has No Comment
Thomas J. Curran, New York secretary of state and chairman of the Manhattan Republican committee, said he told the general that the Stevenson speech "left more unsaid than it said."

"I don't know of any Communism that Stevenson ever uncovered," Curran said.

The delegation said that Eisenhower made no comment in reference to the Stevenson address.

Eisenhower has a promise that he will receive a "surprising" labor vote on election day.

HURRICANE IS GAINING POWER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The tropical hurricane cradled in the Atlantic three days ago was expected to increase its wallowing power today.

No reports were received from the vicinity of the disturbance early today, the Weather Bureau here reported in an advisory, but its center was estimated to be 360 miles north-northwest of San Juan, P. R.

The hurricane—the first of the season—continued its west-northwesterly course at a speed of about 10 to 12 miles an hour. Winds of hurricane force—a minimum of 75 miles an hour—churned the Atlantic in the heavier squalls.

Gales extend outward 200 miles in the northern semi-circle. Winds in the storm's southern area were not strong, the Weather Bureau said.

Ensign Completes Electronics Course

Ensign Paul E. Baumgardner, USN, has returned to his home on Hanover St. after completing a 16-week course in electronics at the United States Naval School at Treasure Island, Calif. He will leave Gettysburg next week for reassignment aboard the USS Leyte bound for the Mediterranean area.

Ensign Baumgardner, a graduate of State College with the class of 1951, is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Baumgardner, Fairfield, and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lauer, Hanover St.

Mr. Baumgardner, Paul's father, was the first casualty in Adams County during the present Korean War. He was reported missing July 12, 1950, and reported killed November 22 of the same year. Mr. Baumgardner was returned for interment in the National Cemetery here April 27, 1951.

North Korean Capital, Red Power Plants Are Blasted

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—U. S. Air Force bombers rained new destruction on Communist supply centers near Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea last night after planes from three U. S. Navy carriers—including the newly repaired Boxer—bombed Red power plants in the northeast.

The fury of the aerial strikes was in sharp contrast to light action along the 155-mile battlefield. The U. S. Eighth Army's evening tactical summary today was the shortest of the war—21 words:

"U. N. patrols engaged enemy units up to a platoon in strength, as action continued light along the Eighth Army front."

A briefing officer said that didn't mean it was the quietest day of the war.

Fly 222 Flights

The Navy said the Boxer and two sister ships off Northeast Korea, the Essex and the Princeton, sent up 222 individual flights that dumped explosives on the huge electric plant at Chosen and other facilities from Kojo to Chonglin.

In a flaming raid on Sohng, 50 miles south of Pyongyang, 15 B26s unloaded destruction on a Communist supply center after civilians had been warned to flee. Pilots reported 25 fires and three large secondary explosions in the target area.

Twelve B-29 Superfortresses bombed a 115-acre supply dump at Sopo 13 miles north of Pyongyang, and two B29s hit a rail yard at Chinnampo, 20 miles southwest.

Five B26s bombed an enemy supply center near Chungwa, south of Pyongyang, and 16 other light bombers cratered a main supply road east of the Red capital.

Pound Installations

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said waves of fighter bombers hit small Red Troop installations near Yon today. Near Haeju, in the same sector of the Western Front, the Air Force said U. N. warplanes exploded a group of fuel storage tanks.

Rain and low clouds kept today's air and ground action light.

The U. N. Command announced in Tokyo that combined Air Force and Navy aircraft losses since the war began 26 months ago now numbered 1,572 planes against confirmed Communist losses of 642. An additional 143 Red planes probably were shot down and 620 damaged, the Air Force said.

The Navy claimed its pilots damaged 88 Red planes. That would make a total of 1,493 Communist planes destroyed or damaged.

Meanwhile the Army indicated today there have been fresh Red prisoner of war incidents or demonstrations in U. N. POW camps since Sunday. It said it would have an announcement tomorrow.

CLUB'S GUEST TO FLY HOME

Carl Eric Kall, Guttenburg, Sweden, who has been a guest of the Gettysburg Rotary Club for the past eight weeks, will fly to Stockholm, Sweden, from New York September 11.

During his stay in this locality he was a guest in a number of Rotary homes and was conducted to various places of interest by members of the club and their families. Some of the places visited this summer were Niagara Falls, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New England States, the Alpine Beach of the Chesapeake Bay, Washington, D. C., and Mount Vernon, Va.

The young student attended classes at Gettysburg College where he studied Problems of Economics. The classes for the summer session will be concluded tomorrow.

Mr. Kall is spending this week with Dr. and Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff and with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Teeter, Springs Ave. This is his second visit with the Teeters. He was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Slaybaugh, E. Middle St., this week-end and also of Mr. and Mrs. John Hostetter, Gettysburg R. 2, for a day.

Mr. Hostetter will take him to Philadelphia during the week-end. Kall will leave for New York next Tuesday where he will visit relatives before leaving for Sweden.

a community? It creates its general atmosphere. It furnishes examples of noble living in dependable manhood and wholesome womanhood, in happy, healthy well-reared youth. It may furnish leaders. It does produce Christian homes, the nursery of good citizens. It promotes good neighborhood spirit. It attempts to rescue and rehabilitate the failure. It ministers to the needy.

"What does the community do for the church in its midst? It can handicap the church. It can neglect it. It can use its influence to accomplish fine results in business, education and recreation. It can live—put to practice its message of the Christian way of life.

"The interrelations of church and community are through the individual persons. The presence of the church does not guarantee that all people in the community will be good. But one outstanding skillful and creative Christian in a community may change the whole community. Bethany was known as the town of Mary, because of her relationship to Christ.

"Whoever is less than the best he or she can be is robbing the community of the kind of person it needs to be its best."

Give Farewell For Girls Entering Convent

A farewell party was held at the home of Miss Sylvia Klunk, New Oxford, in honor of Miss Shirley O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, New Oxford, and Miss Dorothy Krepps, McSherrystown, Tuesday evening. Both Miss O'Brien and Miss Krepps were graduated from the Delone Catholic High School in June.

Miss O'Brien, an honor student at Delone, will leave September 7 for Mendham, N. J., where she will enter the novitiate of the order of the Sisters of Christian Charity who have their Motherhouse in that city. Miss Krepps will leave September 10 for Chestnut Hill, Pa., where she will enter the novitiate of the order of Sisters of St. Joseph.

Among the 16 guests present were Miss Ann Haenn, Gettysburg R. 1, Miss Theresa Hemler, Grandview Terrace, and Miss Margaret Holtz, Fifth St. The party, which was a progressive affair, began at the home of Miss Klunk, later on gathering at the homes of the guests of honor. Refreshments were served.

BREAM'S SNARE PLAYOFF TITLE WITH 7-1 WIN

The Glenn L. Bream Garagemen won their second successive playoff title in the local Softball League with a 7-1 victory over the VFW Wednesday evening before approximately 500 fans.

The win gave the Garagemen four straight in the playoffs, two being gained at the expense of the regular season champions, the Moose, in the semi-finals. Last year the garage outfit won both league titles.

Three runs in the first inning wrapped up the game for the Bream-men as George Fair continued his fine pitching with a four-hitter.

A. Hankey, Frazer and Rohrbach opened with infield hits and Altemose singled to the outfield to score Hankey. Bob Kitzmiller walked to force Frazer over with another tally and Rohrbach romped home when R. Hankey was safe on an error.

Another garage run came in the third when Altemose was safe on a two-base error and R. Hankey singled.

Vets Avert Shutout
The Vets' lone counter was registered in the fifth. Fazenbaker gained base on an error, advanced on another miscue and scored on Buckley's single.

A hit batsman, single and two-base error were good for another run for the victors in the fifth while a walk and pair of hits produced two more runs in the sixth.

Rohrbach poked three singles to feature the hitting.

Johnny Knox, league president, has announced a league meeting will be held Monday, September 8, at 7:30 at the Moose home.

YANKS BOOST LEAD TO TWO GAMES; BUMS LOSE TO CUBS

By RALPH RODEN
AP Sports Writer

It would not be at all surprising to find the faces of General Managers Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox and Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians a bit red today.

The discomfiture of the general managers can be laid at the feet of Ray Scarborough, a 35-year-old pickle salesman from Mt. Olive, N. C., who is currently employed as a pitcher for the American League's pace-setting New York Yankees.

Fans in Boston probably are demanding to know why Cronin sold Scarborough to the Yanks. Those in Cleveland must be wondering why Greenberg passed up an opportunity to obtain the tall right-hander.

Scarborough gained credit yesterday for the Yanks' 12-7 victory over St. Louis. The triumph enabled the Yanks to stretch their lead to two games over the second-place Indians in the pressure-packed race.

How To Athletics
The Indians dropped back by bowing, 6-5, to Philadelphia. Boston's third-place Red Sox remained 3½ games astern as Mel Parnell shut out Detroit, 5-0. In the remaining American League game, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Senators, 4-1, under the lights at Washington.

Brooklyn stubbed its toe in its march to the National League pennant by dropping a 10-5 decision to the Chicago Cubs while the runner-up New York Giants sneaked by Pittsburgh, 5-4, to reduce the Dodgers advantage to 9½ games. In night games, Philadelphia smeared St. Louis, 7-2, and Boston downed Cincinnati, 12-7, in 10 innings.

Scarborough was procured by the Yanks from Boston on Aug. 22 for the $10,000 waiver price. All other clubs in the American League had a chance to obtain Scarborough before the Yanks but none nibbled.

Relieves Reynolds

Yesterday he entered the game in the third inning in relief of Allie Reynolds, who was tagged for five unearned runs in the second inning. Scarborough limited the Browns to three hits in four innings and was awarded the victory when the Yanks came up with four runs in the sixth to take a 10-5 lead.

The A's spotted the Indians a 4-0 lead in the first inning and then roared back with one in the fourth on Gus Zernial's 25th homer and five more in the fifth to beat Mike Garcia.

Parnell blanked the Tigers on six hits as the Red Sox ran their winning streak to five games.

Former Dodgers Tommy Brown, Bob Addis and Dee Fondy were the big wheels in Chicago's triumph over Brooklyn. The trio accounted for nine of the Cubs' 15 hits with Brown leading the way with four singles. Bob Rush, with help in the ninth from Dutch Leonard, a Dodger from 1933 to 1936, gained credit for his 13th victory.

Victory For Phils

Bill Connelly, making his first Giant start, picked up his second victory in beating Pittsburgh. Connelly allowed only four hits but needed help in the eighth from Al Corwin and Larry Jansen when the Pirates scored twice on three walks and an error.

Lefty Curt Simmons breezed to his 11th victory for the Phils in the night game at St. Louis. The Phils rapped Wilmer (Vinegar) Bend Mizell and Joe Presko for a 7-0 lead in three innings.

Interstate

By The Associated Press

York, Lancaster and Wilmington continued their imbroglio over third and fourth positions in the Interstate League last night.

Last night it was all York, as the third place White Roses smothered the revitalized Wilmington team 11-2 and strengthened their league position.

Lancaster, by virtue of a split with seventh place Sunbury in a twin bill, stepped back into fourth, a half game ahead of Wilmington. The Red Roses lost their opener to the Giants, 4-3, and captured the nightcap, 10-6.

Eighth place Harrisburg rose to the heights in nosing out Allentown, 2-1 in 10 innings while sixth place Salisbury slipped one over on Hagerstown's league leaders, 6-3.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press
Batting, Yogi Berra, Yankees—Drove in three runs on his 26th and 27th homers of the season to lead New York to 12-7 victory over St. Louis.

Pitching, Mel Parnell, Red Sox—Pitched shutout to a 5-0, six-hit victory over Detroit to extend Boston's winning streak to five games.

Giants Hard Put To Beat Pirates

PITTSBURGH—The New York Giants outthrew the Pittsburgh Pirates 13 to 4 yesterday but had a hard time winning a 5-4 decision from the National League cellar dwellers.

Three walks and an error in the eighth enabled the Pirates to score two runs. Relief pitcher Larry Jansen ended the Buc threat and pitched a scoreless ninth to enable rookie Bill Connelly to hang up his second victory against no defeats.

Giant Monte Irvin smashed a homer in the first inning. George Metkovich accounted for two Pirate runs with a round tripper in the sixth.

Y. S. AGAIN TOPS CENTERVILLE 5-1

York Springs took a 2-1 lead in its semi-final Bi-County Baseball League series with Centerville by triumphing 5-1 Wednesday evening at York Springs.

Plainfield became a finalist with a 3-2 win over New Kingston. This evening York Springs will play at Centerville.

Four runs in the five innings gave the countians their victory as Reinecker limited Centerville to but three hits.

Pen-Mar Baseball League

The North defeated the South 6-5 in one of the series of all-star games staged by the Pen-Mar Baseball League Wednesday evening at Littlestown. A fair-sized crowd attended.

G. Weikert, Fairfield, and Herring, Cashtown, formed the winning battery while Shaffer and Shank, both of Union Bridge, were the losers. All teams sent representatives with the exception of New Oxford and Westminster.

Cashtown and Littlestown will tangle in two games at Littlestown Friday evening. At 7:30 o'clock the teams will finish a protested game from the point of the protest. It will start in the top of the ninth inning when Cashtown had one out and the bases loaded with Littlestown leading 3-2.

The second game will be the play off of a postponed game.

BOBO SMOTHERS GENE HAIRSTON

NEW YORK—Carl (Bobo) Olson had his sixth straight victory today and a burning desire to fight Middleweight Champion Sugar Ray Robinson again.

The clever, 24-year-old Hawaiian chalked up No. 6 with a six-round technical knockout over sturdy Gene (Silent) Hairston of New York in Madison Square Garden last night. It was a very impressive performance.

Olson staggered the 23-year-old Negro deaf-mute with a right to the temple in the third round and opened a deep cut over his right eye in the fourth round. That was the beginning of the end. Bobo popped one left after another at the wound, blazed over thumping rights to the head, and then barged his game rival's body to keep him guessing.

Eastern League

By The Associated Press
Could be Jack Crawford, slugging outfielder of the Scranton Miners, was overwhelmed by his new title as "Most Valuable Player" in the Eastern League.

The league Baseball Writers Association announced the honor yesterday, and Crawford went hitless last night in six official at bats.

The Binghamton Triplets beat the Williamsport Tigers, 8-5, at Williamsport. Schenectady beat the Pioneers, 3-1, at Elmira, and the Senators defeated the Reading Indians, 8-3, at Albany.

INTERSTATE IS FACING BLEAK OUTLOOK IN '53

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The outlook for the Class B Interstate League appeared glum for next year as the Phillies president Bob Carpenter put Wilmington, Del., on the uncertain list for 1953.

The president of the Quaker City National League team said yesterday he has "not yet decided" whether to continue a franchise in neighboring Wilmington next season.

Others Threatened

A number of other clubs in the league which is suffering from drought or are on the brink of losing working agreements with major league teams.

Without such agreements, as one club official put it, no one could operate "unless he had a million dollars."

The Brooklyn Dodgers have announced they will sever all ties with Lancaster's Red Roses to return to Asheville of the Tri-State League.

Harrisburg Problem
And the St. Louis Cardinals have indicated that whether they keep Allentown next year depends upon operations between now and the end of the season.

The Harrisburg Senators, who have had only a partial working agreement with the Philadelphia Athletics, say they will operate next year only under a full working agreement and with representative players.

IDAVILLE NINE IS ELIMINATED

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.—Monongahela and Hackensack, the pick of Pennsylvania's and New Jersey's small boy baseball teams, clashed in a semi-final tilt at the Little League World Series here today.

The winner will face Norwalk, Conn., in the final of the sixth annual competition here tomorrow.

Norwalk, representing the New England district which produced last year's Stamford, Conn., Little League world champions, nosed out San Diego, Calif., in the first semi-final game last night, 2-1, in seven innings.</

TWENTY YEARS AGO
National Park Head Takes Up Duties: Colonel J. Frank Barber, of Philadelphia, appointed by executive order of President Hoover as successor to Colonel Edgar E. Davis, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, arrived in Gettysburg Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock to assume his new duties.
Colonel Barber has been in service for 34 years. He served in the Spanish-American War and the World War. He entered the world as a captain and emerged as a colonel.
He rose to command the 304th Engineers in France and was decorated with the Distinguished Service medal for extraordinary service under fire.
Breasts Moved: Henry T. Bream and family moved on Thursday from East Lincoln Avenue to 253 Baltimore Street.
Adams County Road Supervisor Weds: Oliver Waybright, retired farmer and present road supervisor in Freedom Township, Adams County, and Miss Fannie Florio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Florio, Taneytown, were married Tuesday morning in Silver Run, Md., by the Rev. W. E. Saltzger.

Flora Dale Lad Jumps on Nail: Alexander Griest, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Griest, of Flora Dale, suffered an injury to his left foot Thursday when he jumped on a nail while playing in the feed room of the barn at his home.
The injury was dressed by Dr. W. E. Wolf, of Arendtsville, who administered tetanus anti-toxin.

Opens New Office: Kenderton S. Lynch, former proprietor of Lincoln Way Inn, has opened a real estate office at 106 West Lincoln Avenue.
Chiropractor will Open Office in Emmitsburg: Doctor D. L. Beegle, Mrs. Beegle and their daughter, Nancy Louise, will move to Emmitsburg about September 1. The office equipment of the local chiropractor is being packed, preparatory to being shipped to the Maryland community. His new offices and residence will be opened some time in September.
Doctor Beegle said "he enjoyed an extensive practice in Gettysburg during his four years here."

Former Countess Married Saturday: John W. Kittinger, of Lancaster, formerly of Fairfield, and Miss Helen Pieger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Pieger, of Lancaster, were married in Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, by the Rev. Herbert Burke, Saturday.
Mr. Kittinger is employed by the Armstrong Cork Corporation in Lancaster, where the newlyweds will reside.
Mr. and Mrs. Kittinger are spending their honeymoon in Fairfield.

Lions Host to Sons at Picnic: Members of the Gettysburg Lions Club entertained their sons at their annual picnic Monday afternoon and evening at the Marsh Creek Hunting Club camp in the South Mountains.
More than 60 members, sons and guests were in attendance. Dr. H. D. Hoover talked to the boys, telling the mass number of Indian stories.

County Couple Weds Saturday: Announcement was made Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. George Harbold, Hunting Twp., of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emma Elizabeth Harbold, to Glenn Kemper, of Heidlersburg.
The ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon, August 20, by the Rev. Carroll Burruss, at Bethesda, Md.

For several years Mr. Kemper has been teaching at the Franklin Twp. Consolidated School at Cashtown. He is also a member of the York Springs baseball team.
Player Improves: Clair Slaybaugh, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Slaybaugh, of Guernsey, who broke his leg in a ball game played

Today's Talk

LIVING IN WONDERMENT
I am very sure that if I understood all in nature about me I would soon become bored and lose my interest, no matter how wonderful my discoveries, but the facts are that we know next to nothing about what goes on in the earth right under our footsteps. The chemical changes that are forever at work, and the mysterious formations that have given us coal, oil, minerals and precious stones, are only a part of the wonders that are concealed from us, awaiting our discovery and understanding.

As it is we cannot enter a forest, or kick our toe into the ground without setting some force to work or disturb one already in action. It's an amazing world in which we live and have our being. How can we help but live in a sustained wonderment?

With my field glasses I have sat for hours this summer studying the habits of a variety of birds, especially the smaller ones that are in such abundance on my island, because of the fruits and berries that they consume with such glee. My favorites are the small warblers, of which there is a variety throughout the summer. They are so friendly, I have given them a feed box and now they are happier than ever. And every once in a while I note a hummingbird dart like an arrow, to one of the flower beds, and then disappear in the forest.

There isn't a thing that grows that doesn't have some interest to it. It was created important, or it wouldn't have been created. Everything was put into this world for a purpose. It is this fact that increases our wonderment, especially as we learn more about nature and become tuned to the beauty and spiritual significance of everything.

Never should we cease to wonder! It's like being in love and spreading good will and happiness all about us. Nothing is so contagious as wonder, happiness, and love! And where they are all combined, you have the picture of a healthy human being. An ideal worth striving to gain!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Rewards." Protected, 1952 by The George Matthews Adams Service

MISSED
I stayed in town and missed the rise
Of sun that gilded eastern skies,
And many a curious thing that files.

I missed the moon upon the lake,
The noise that banging screen doors make
And having fish instead of steak.

I missed the hammock 'neath the trees,
I missed Lake Huron's cooling breeze,
The paper napkin on my knees.

I missed the cottage that I sold,
I missed the joys it used to hold;
The morning paper, three days old.

AIRCRAFT CZAR IS URGED BY SENATE GROUP

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate defense investigators said today an excess of gadgets and top level indecision have slowed down military aircraft production and prevented the development of adequate air defenses for the United States.

The highly critical report was the latest of a series from the Senate armed services preparedness subcommittee headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.).

In order to speed aircraft production to meet a possible Russian atomic attack, the report suggested appointment of a full-time production czar by the President and an overhauling of present basic defense legislation.

Suggested Last Fall
Some of the same recommendations were made last November by the same defense watchdog group but Chairman Johnson, in a separate statement, indicated they had not been carried out.

Johnson said the airpower buildup has been slowed down by a "capacity for indecision which at times has reached amazing levels."

Although the Defense Department did name a production czar, Johnson said, "he did not receive the necessary authority and eventually was reduced to the status of a job holder part-time." Aides of Johnson said this was Clay Bedford, industrial leader who was named special assistant to the secretary of defense.

Wants Standardization
The new report asked appointment of "a full-time production czar with powers to determine priorities, to freeze designs to the necessary extent, and to order quantity production initiated, so that our minimum air requirements are met as quickly as possible."

The report also called for a greater share of federal funds for air power and less for ground and sea arms.

The report was sharply critical of constant changes in models and additions of gadgets and gimmicks to aircraft designs. It said there was a need for design freezes and mass reduction.

East Berlin

East Berlin—Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Feiser, with her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Jacobs, made a brief trip to Atlantic City, N. J., recently.

An appeal has been made to the congregation of Trinity Lutheran church for all available canned fruits and vegetables to be brought to the annual Harvest Home service, Sunday, September 21, to be given to the National Lutheran Home for the Aged, Washington, D. C.

The Women's Missionary Society of Trinity Lutheran Church held a covered dish social Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Archie M. Pentz, near Brown's Dam.

Mrs. James R. Myers, who recently returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Samuel J. Leicy, North York, went to the Leicy home again this week for a brief stay.

Mrs. Charles Myers has recovered from cuts about her face suffered when she tripped and fell on a pavement outside her home near the Square.

Fred V. Brandt, who has spent several months with the air corps at Chanute, Ill., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Y. Brandt, prior to his leaving for a month's special training at a school in New York, after which he will be re-assigned. During his stay he was guest organist for one of the worship services of Trinity Lutheran church.

The Women's Missionary Society of Holtzschamm Church met for an outing and regular session Saturday at the B. W. Aldland Ranch near the church.

Among attendants at the wedding last week of Miss Irene M. Maxwell, Westminster, Md., to William Hostetter Murphy, Hanover, was Eugene Elgin Jr., an usher.

Broadcasting Firm
Faces Union Charge

READING, Pa. (AP)—The Hawley Broadcasting Co. was charged today with engaging in unfair labor practices by the National Labor Relations Board.

In a suit brought by the American Federation of Radio Artists, (AFRA) the board charged the company with refusing to bargain with the union, questioning employees on union activities, and coercing, interfering and restraining employees from engaging in union organization.

The board said the company's conduct "disclosed a fixed purpose to defeat self-organization and its objectives."

The company was ordered to "cease and desist from engaging in such conduct."

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials at the Federal House of Detention here disclosed yesterday that gambler Frank Costello was transferred to the Federal Correction Institute at Lewisburg, Pa., last Friday to begin serving an 18 months jail sentence.

Costello was sentenced for contempt of the U. S. Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

SCRIBE SAYS ADLAI TRYING TO CORNER IKE

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Stevenson, reminded by President Truman to watch his steps, is trying to walk Gen. Eisenhower into a corner.

When photographers were turning him around to get a good shot of him during his visit here a few weeks ago, Stevenson quipped: "I haven't been so much trouble since I was in dancing school."

At least his political dancing seemed a little rusty for he stepped smack on Truman's toes. And, like a man with bunions, Truman showed he didn't like it. This is what had happened:

Promises Cleaning
Over a week ago, in a letter to an editor, Stevenson said he would, if elected, lean up the "mess" in Washington. Asked about this at his news conference last Thursday, Truman snapped he knew of no mess.

Then, asked if he felt he was a target, Truman said the Democratic party had to run on the record of the Roosevelt-Truman administrations—that's all it could run on.

Meanwhile, Eisenhower publicly approved some of the social legislation placed on the books under the Democratic administrations of the past 20 years.

This gave Stevenson an opportunity to needle Eisenhower with a crack about being a "me toer."

Still, one of the oddities of this campaign is that the New Deal and the "Fair Deal"—at least under those names—have hardly figured in this campaign although they were issues in previous presidential races.

"Lavish Praise"
But late yesterday, at a Democratic rally in New Jersey, Stevenson showed that in a week's time he had polished up on his political dancing. He came out with lavish praise of Democratic doings for the past 20 years.

Stevenson talked of the 20-year Democratic administration but not as a New Deal or a "fair" one. Since he's pretty nimble with words, he may have had a reason or maybe he just doesn't like slogans.

Still, Stevenson tried to make this speech do double duty. It could serve to reassure Truman Democrats about him. And it was a wide open taunt to Eisenhower to show whether he was a "me toer."

PLAN MERGER OF STATE UNITS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Consolidation of state agencies dealing with local government officials throughout Pennsylvania has the approval of the state secretary of Internal Affairs.

And what's more, the Bureau of Municipal Affairs in the Internal Affairs Department is "made to order" for such a centralization, says Secretary William S. Livengood Jr.

The proposal originally was advanced by the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors as a means of adding local officials' business with one agency instead of a variety of bureaus and departments.

"It is refreshing to have an organization propose the elimination of duplication in a day when the usual cry is for more instead of less agencies of government," Livengood said in a statement yesterday.

Mummasburg

MUMMASBURG—Mrs. E. E. Oyer and four sons, of Hornell, N. Y., returned to their home after spending over two weeks at the home of Mrs. Oyer's mother, Mrs. Ruth Sell.

John Black, Ephrata, who spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Wilson, left on Saturday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Rudy and daughter, Ephrata, for a visit with friends and relatives near Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall and daughter, Cynthia, and Mrs. James Crouse, all of Chambersburg, spent Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hall's and Mrs. Crouse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jere Keefe. Miss Cynthia Hall remained to spend some time at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Keefe.

The Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Gingrich and son, Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Gingrich and daughter, Elinor, Oakland Mills, Pa., spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hartman and family. Mrs. Elizabeth Deardoff, Upland, is spending the week at the Hartman home. Mrs. Deardoff was a dinner guest of Mrs. Florence Wilson, Tuesday.

Week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Strausbaugh were the Misses Nancy and Joan MacCullum, of near Bristol, Conn.; Cpl. Fred Hudan, Indiantown Gap; Armore Weikert, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Plantz and family, of Enola; Mrs. Clyde Miller and four children, Rome, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Emlet and children, Jane and Rodney, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Emlet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson. Rodney has been spending two weeks at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Littlestown DISCUSS GIRL SCOUT AFFAIRS

A corn bake and wiener roast was held in connection with the August meeting of the Littlestown Girl Scout Committee on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, W. King St. The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. John E. Stambaugh. Plans were discussed for the observance of Girl Scout Week and the annual financial drive. It was decided that at the next meeting, September 22, the members will go to the Alpha engine house early in the evening to clean the scout meeting headquarters. Mrs. Charles H. Fassel and Mrs. George W. Strevig were appointed as a standing camping committee.

Dates of Girl Scouting activities were announced as follows: Wednesday, September 10, first Adams County Girl Scout Council meeting in Gettysburg; September 30, sectional meeting at Wilson College, Chambersburg; October 9, leaders club session; October 27, campfire meeting at Rockwood Manor, near Bethesda, Md. The group discussed having the annual fly-up ceremonies and investiture service during Girl Scout Week. The time and place will be set later. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. George Strevig.

Those in attendance at the meeting included Mrs. Arter, Mrs. Stambaugh, Mrs. Strevig, Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, Mrs. Charles H. Fassel, Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Mrs. Paul Luckenbaugh, Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz, Mrs. Charles E. Rabenstein, Mrs. Robert H. Thomas, Mrs. Walter Morelock, Mrs. LeRoy Helwig and Mrs. Ralph Snyder.

The second reunion of the class of 1944 of the Littlestown High School was held on Sunday at a cottage at Dick's Dam in the form of a family picnic. A basket lunch was served and boating and swimming were enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast and sons, Donald Jr. and Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Feaser and daughter, Cynthia; Allen Harner, Esther Krout, Mr. and Mrs. William Ebaugh, Robert Straley, Luther Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wareheim and Betty Zumbrum and son, Craig, all of Littlestown; Betty Miller, Mercersburg; Louise Bollinger, Emmitsburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Wetzel and daughter, Jacqueline; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sheely and daughter, Cyndra; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krahn and son, Ricky; Mr. and Mrs. William Eckert and daughter, Linda, all of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klunk and son, David, Taneytown; and Mr. and Mrs. William Strayer and daughter, Anna, Fayetteville.

The annual picnic for the members of the class was held at the same place.

BARD LASHES GOP FARM STAND

CENTRE HALL, Pa. (AP)—Guy K. Bard, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, said here that the Republican Party has fought Democratic farm policy "without offering anything constructive as a substitute."

"What have the Republicans ever offered that would be better?" Bard asked in a speech delivered at a Democratic Day observance yesterday at the Centre County Fair.

"No amount of political talk can change the simple fact that under Republican farm policies, which remain essentially unchanged to this day, the American farmer was thrown into bankruptcy, and the Democratic Party rescued him from that bankruptcy," Bard declared.

Bard, who gave up a lifetime job as a federal judge to campaign for U. S. Senator, said the farmer averaged 80 cents a day in income in 1932.

"Last year," he said, "the farmer was making an average of nine times as much and his real income was four times that of 1932. 'Farm prices averaged six per cent above parity last year compared with 45 per cent below parity in 1932.'"

Members of the congregation of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, the Sunday School and other organizations of the church and their families will be held on Saturday in St. Luke's Church, near White Hall. A basket luncheon will be held at 12:30 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the teachers of the Children's Sunday School Department of Redeemer's Reformed Church has been postponed to September 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the church social hall. The hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Luckenbaugh and Miss Shirley Hawk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Sentz, Littlestown-Westminster Rd., have returned from a five-day vacation trip through the southern states and Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Miller Jr. and family, E. King St., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hamme and children, Gloria Jean, Bruce and Trudy, of Spring Grove, at dinner Sunday. Additional visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hellingner, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. William Hellingner and son, Joseph, Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. William Hellingner II and daughter, Linda, East Petersburg; Mrs. Serepta Shriner, New Cumberland; and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bolden, Hanover.

A Wave From Legionnaire Ike

his maternal uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Crouse Sr., N. Queen St.

The Pioneer Men entertained with western music and comedy acts at the third night of the six-night run of the Kingsdale Fire Co.'s carnival on Wednesday. The kiddie rides were kept busy throughout the evening and a large quantity of refreshments were sold. The fourth annual beauty contest will be staged this evening, when Miss Adams County Firemen will be crowned.

The winner will receive $50; second prize is $30, and third prize, $20. During the parade of beauties, Esther Feaser will entertain on the Hammond organ.

The Tones of York will provide music on Friday evening.

Mrs. Orville C. Sentz, Littlestown R. 2, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde N. Parr, Hanover, attended the funeral Tuesday of their aunt, Mrs. Laura Parr Rogers, who died Saturday at her home in Trenton, N. J.

Volunteers Search For Missing Boy

NEW BLOOMFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Volunteer firemen and Boy Scouts helped state police search the banks and drag the Juniata River today for a missing 21-month-old boy.

State police of the New Bloomfield barracks reported the child, William Beers, disappeared yesterday while on a picnic with his parents and five brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beers, of Oberlin, near Harrisburg, told police the boy was playing with a twin brother the last time they saw him.

A searching party of 100 persons continued the hunt through the night. They began dragging the river near the scene of the picnic but failed to uncover a trace of the boy.

U. S. Airman Killed In Mexican Crash

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The parents of a Pottsville airman were informed by air force authorities yesterday that their son had been killed in an auto accident in New Mexico on Tuesday.

The son, S. Sgt. John Kadingo, 30, was stationed at Holloman Air Base, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Kadingo said they were given no details of the accident.

MEMBER GETTYSBURG RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

STEVENSON IS STRESSING FOUR POINTS IN TALKS

By The Associated Press

Gov. Adlai Stevenson's first major address indicates his campaign strategy will lean heavily on a four-point attack emphasizing "you never had it so good" and an attempt to stamp his Republican presidential opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, as a "me-too" candidate.

Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate, in a speech at the American Legion Convention and in another delivered last night at a Democratic rally near Asbury Park, N. J., hit hard on these points:

1. Prosperity—"The people of this country are better off than they or any other people have ever been."

"Me-tooism"—"On domestic policy, only now are they (the Republicans) slowly and reluctantly accepting the ideas successfully sponsored by the Democratic party years ago. . . . It looks more and more to me as though they are going to stand on our program."

3. Foreign policy—"The Republicans are split wide open on foreign policy. . . . Some of us are reluctant to admit that peace cannot be won by some clever diplomatic maneuver or by propaganda."

4. McCarthyism—"I am not in the delicate position of another candidate for high office, who faces the ticklish problem of whether to swallow his principles and endorse all the candidates running on the same ticket with him."

Eisenhower has said he would support Sen. Joseph McCarthy, the controversial Republican senator from Wisconsin, if McCarthy is re-nominated. But he added at the time he would not give blanket endorsement to any one who "does anything I believe to be un-American in methods or procedure."

Some have charged that McCarthy has gone too far with certain accusations connected with his Communism - in - government drive.

Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) said yesterday in Seattle that Eisenhower's proposed support of McCarthy was based on the general recognition of the importance of Republicans winning control of the Senate.

44 Million Fund

Statements by Republican and Democratic National Headquarters indicate the two parties plan to spend about four million dollars on radio and television alone.

Robert Humphreys, GOP publicity director, said up to two millions will be spent on radio-TV time for Eisenhower and the GOP vice-presidential nominee, Sen. Richard Nixon of California. He said they will appear separately on 15 to 20 national programs, and will appear together on a couple of TV shows.

The Democratic National Committee has contracted for almost as much—11 1/2 millions—to let Stevenson and his running mate, Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama, be seen and heard between now and November.

Secretary of the army Frank Pace praised Eisenhower as a "splendid military leader" but said he hopes the Democrats are returned to power because their civilian and governmental experience makes them better qualified for the job, Pace is a Democrat.

Mrs. Charles P. Howard, coordinator of women's activities on the staff of the GOP presidential nominee, said in Washington "a very happy family" is one of Eisenhower's political assets.

She said she believed many people would like Stevenson better if he had a wife—but she added that she did not regard divorce as a scandal. Stevenson is divorced.

Strike Cost Twelve Million Man-Days

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department reported today that strike idleness in July cost 12 1/2 million man-days work, largely because of the steel strike.

This was the greatest idleness reported due to strikes for any month since October, 1949, except the 14 million man-days of idleness in June, when the steel strike was in full swing.

The number of workers on strike during July was 850,000, compared with one million in June.

LOYALTY OATH ISSUE BEFORE DR. EISENHOWER

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—The case of a 52-year-old employee of the Pennsylvania State College who refused to comply with provisions of the state Loyalty Oath went to President Milton S. Eisenhower today for decision.

Both the college loyalty review board and the employee, Wendell Scott MacRae, publications production manager of the Department of Information, took the case to Dr. Eisenhower.

The board refused yesterday to certify MacRae as "not subversive," reporting in a statement that its members "lacked evidence essential" to do so.

MacRae, a veteran of World War I, immediately appealed the board's finding. He questioned the constitutionality of the Loyalty Oath Act and said the oath he took as a marine, which he submitted to the board, provided "evidence of loyalty to my country that goes far beyond the unsworn statement the college has obtained from other employees."

Enforce State Act

The case developed in administration by the college of the 1951 Loyalty Oath Law, which requires all state and local public employees to swear they are not members of subversive organizations, or lose their jobs. The act, however, provided an exemption from the oath for institutions of higher education but requires heads of those institutions to certify as to the loyalty of employees. Penn State circulated a questionnaire among 3,000 college employees to provide Dr. Eisenhower with data to comply with the act. MacRae refused to comply with the college procedure and, instead, submitted his Marine oath.

The board said in its statement that MacRae refused to answer any questions put to him as to his loyalty.

"Exceeded Authority"

MacRae said that the college went beyond the authority delegated in the Loyalty Oath Act and that its procedure "is not binding on employees of the college."

"I reaffirmed the oath I took as a member of the armed forces," MacRae said. "In spite of this evidence and the lack of any evidence to the contrary from the board, the board has chosen blind adherence to a procedure."

"I am protesting the verdict of the board to President Milton S. Eisenhower of the college in the hope that he will not permit himself to be the prisoner of a fixed procedure in the case of serious injustice and that he will overrule the verdict of the board."

MacRae, a native of Minnesota, joined the Penn State staff in 1949. He came from New York where he was a free lance photographer

Alleged Revenge Slasher

While his wife chokes back tears, Stanley Wharton, 41, of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of Cresson, Pa., kisses his daughter goodbye before leaving Cresson for jail August 26. Wharton, in an effort to "square things," allegedly slashed Matthew Crouch, 55-year-old retired agent of the Treasury Department Bureau of Narcotics, who had helped to send Wharton to a reform school for burglary some 25 years ago. Bail was set at $5,000.

PFL Claims Senator Martin Voted Wrong

HARRISBURG (AP)—U. S. Sen. Edward Martin has voted "wrong" on all major issues since 1946, says the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor.

The PFL already has endorsed Martin's Democratic opponent in the Nov. 4 election, ex-federal Judge Guy K. Bard, Ephrata. Martin is seeking reelection to the Senate on the Republican ticket.

"On the basis of recorded votes and public statements, it appears that Sen. Martin has never supported favorable labor legislation," the PFL said in an "individual analysis" report yesterday.

"His record is equally bad on legislation dealing with social welfare, domestic economic policy and anti-Communist foreign aid," the report added.

MEREDITH HOUSE SOLD

DES MOINES (AP)—The house built in 1918 for the late E. T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture under President Wilson, has been sold for $32,000. Boasting seven bedrooms and seven bathrooms on the two upper floors, it had been vacant for about two years.

7 OIL FIRMS DO NOT DENY NEW CHARGES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Small Business Committee said today none of seven big oil firms accused of monopoly practices has accepted an offer to appear before the committee and dispute the charge.

The monopoly accusations were detailed in a long-suppressed report written by Federal Trade Commission staff members. The report was made public by the Senate committee Monday after President Truman acceded to senators' demands that it be released.

Blake O'Connor, directing the committee's professional staff, said the group will decide now whether to order public hearings of its own on the matter, write a report based on the FTC findings or simply let the report stand.

Public Hearing Available
Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, the committee chairman and Democratic nominee for vice president, announced in making the report public he was reserving yesterday and today for public hearings if any of the seven companies wanted to reply.

The report named the seven companies as Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard of California, the Texas Co., Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., and Gulf Oil Corp., all incorporated in this country; the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., largely owned by the British government, and Royal Dutch Shell, owned mainly by Dutch and British interests. In press statements at the time, the companies generally denied any wrongdoing.

The Justice Department is investigating the group, and has filed damage suits totaling 67 million dollars against the two Standard companies, the Texas Co. and Socony-Vacuum.

Four Brink Guards Lose Their Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Brink's guards were out of a job today because they had lunch together last Monday.

While they were eating in a hotel cafeteria their unguarded armored truck was rifled of $65,000 in cash. The money was recovered next day with the arrest of Ray E. Farmer, 26, a former Brink's employee who had a key to the truck. Farmer, a bakery truck driver, is being held in $40,000 bail on grand larceny charges.

Dr. W. A. Gette Given State Sanatorium Post

Dr. Warren A. Gette, a member of the staff at Mont Alto Sanatorium for the past seven and a half years, has been appointed chief of medical service at that institution.

Dr. Gette succeeds Dr. Forrest Ostrander, who headed the sanatorium for many years and who is retiring from the state Bureau of Tuberculosis Control. Dr. Ostrander was a retired Army medical officer before becoming chief of medical service at Mont Alto.

Dr. Gette is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, College and medical school, and interned at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. He graduated from medical school in 1943. He is a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians.

Milk Hearing Is Recessed To Oct. 2

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Milk Control Commission today gave milk producers until Oct. 2 to review dealer proposals to revise operating methods in business between dealers and producers.

The agency recessed a hearing yesterday after dairy farmers claimed the proposals would give dealers a bigger share of the consumer's milk dollar at expense of producers.

The changes were technical involving payments, fair-trade practices and records.

PAINTER PUTS HIS MEMORIES ONTO CANVAS

PARIS (AP) — Kees van Dongen, 75-year-old Dutch painter who romped to fame in Paris' roaring Montmartre artists' colony in the early years of the century, has painted his memories and Parisians have flocked to see them.

His autobiography on canvas — the result of a year of intensive work — opened here in the Paul Petrides gallery. His 30 paintings in the exhibit were of beaches, race tracks and yacht clubs of the elegant resort town of Deauville, the northern French countryside, and a backward glance at some of the women he has known.

His models were the bathers and baskers on last summer's sands. But instead of painting them as they were, he drew from a long, long memory to clothe them in the crinoline and the cloche/hats of his hey-day.

The result is a strange mixture of modern art with old-fashioned subjects, an artistic marriage nonetheless so successful that all the canvases were sold at fabulous prices long before they went on exhibit.

Lives Among His Memories

Man Is Charged With Manslaughter

READING, Pa. (AP) — Eugene Fox of Reading has been charged with involuntary manslaughter in the highway death of William Miller Jr., 17, of Robeson, Pa.

Police said Fox was driving his car near Reading when he struck Miller, who was pushing his car. Miller died shortly after the accident in Reading Hospital.

The arrest warrant was issued Tuesday at the request of Michael J. Reilly, County Detective. Fox posted $1,000 bail for a hearing next week.

In his studio on the Rue de Courcelles, this spade-bearded Dutch expatriate lives in a world curiously remote from Paris of 1952. From the walls peer down the images of a past whose escapades and accomplishments already are being written into the history books of modern art.

There are the early canvases of a 30-year-old art student, who came wide-eyed to an already changing city in 1897 and, penniless, let himself sink into the current of the straggly bohemianism of the time. In this period are the midnights, the show horses and acrobats of the Cirque Medrano, the shy little girls in ruffles who by night danced in the chorus at the Folies Bergeres, and, in the place of honor, a youthful Mistin-guette.

"Kiki," as Van Dongen was called by his artists' colony friends, met the ageless beauty in 1900 and did her picture with the late Max Dearly, going an Apache dance, her head thrown back, breasts bare and eyes sultry.

Painted On Sheet

Van Dongen came to the ferment of the 19th century Paris from the sleepy Dutch town of Delfshaven where he was born. He had shown a talent for drawing by making a painting of a horse on a sheet which his mother considered a waste of good linen.

"I had to make a living," he said. "I let my beard grow because it cost less than going to a barber shop. I was so poor that I sold newspapers, opened the doors of carriages for great ladies, and peddled sketches."

He became a shill for a traveling carnival and took fake falls in a fake wrestling match. It was during this time that he met Anita, a fulsome brunette who became his mistress.

"She was a belly dancer — and we lived together," he said. "We were all very young."

They went to live in the "Bateau Laitier" (Laundry Boat) in the Montmartre and met Picasso. The Bateau was a bare, barracks-like building where a dozen or so youths scraped out a living, painting. It was a motley collection, "Kiki" recalled, a number of their failures, some later suicides. Only Picasso ever became really famous.

Picasso And Matisse

"Kiki" believes Picasso's leftist tendencies took root in those days of poverty.

"Picasso was always sad and melancholic," he recalled. "His had been a miserable life. Mine had been, too, but I was more of a savage. I ran around in my bare feet, picked up a wife, ran around to the newspapers, did everything to keep alive without becoming depressed."

"At that time," he said, "Picasso was like a pregnant woman. He lay in his bed day in and day out, waiting for something to come along."

After World War I, "Kiki" turned to portrait painting. His noted sitters included Anatole France, whom he described as "almost too brilliant," Maurice Chevalier, the Aga Kahn, the Countess de Noailles, and a number of American boulevardiers and men about town.

"Kiki" said his painter friends

White Population Of Congo Booms

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP) — The Belgian Congo's tremendous economic boom in the last few years has pumped more than 8,000 whites into the colony. The most unhealthy and remote provinces have proved to be the fastest-growing areas.

In the year 1951 the white population of the Congo has increased by 14 per cent from 57,930 to 66,078. This compares with a native population of about 12 million. There are now 1,048 Americans in the Congo.

often became angry at him over his apparent desertion of the ranks to paint the high world society. But his portraits often were savage caricatures and many of his sitters refused to accept the canvases when they were finished.

"After all," said "Kiki," "one has to treat the rich kind, just as one would a dog. They are miserable, bored and stupid, too."

TEXAN IS NAMED RENT DIRECTOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — James McInnes Henderson, a native of Daingerfield, Tex., Wednesday was named the new director of rent stabilization.

Henderson, now general counsel of the Economic Stabilization Agency, succeeds Tighe E. Woods. Woods was moved up Tuesday from the rent post to head of the Office of Price Stabilization.

Both the Henderson and Woods appointments are effective Monday. Woods succeeds Ellis G. Arnall, former Georgia governor, as price chief.

Arnall plans to leave Washington, probably Friday, to resume his law practice and insurance company connections in Atlanta and Newman, Ga. He also will continue as president of the Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers.

STUDY CIVIL DEFENSE

DES MOINES, Ia. (AP) — Fundamentals of civil defense have been added to the study courses of all Iowa public school children from the first grade through the senior year in high school. The innovation starts with the fall term.

"The program in the state's 835 public schools is not designed to inject fear but to stress self-preservation," said Miss Jessie M. Parker, superintendent of the state Department of Public Instruction.

RURAL SCHOOLS NEED HELP

NEW YORK (AP) — A teachers conference meeting at Columbia University has called upon state governments to adopt tax programs that will provide a sound and adequate education for country children as well as city children.

The 35 educators included rural teachers, district superintendents, and representatives from teachers' colleges and state departments of education.

Irrigation Drives Out Rattlesnakes

REGINA, Canada (AP) — Rattlesnakes are on the increase in Saskatchewan and naturalists blame Albert's expanding irrigation works.

Fred Bard, director of the provincial museum, says he believes that irrigation in Alberta is flooding land where the rattlers used to make their home. To find drier living quarters, the snakes have moved east into Saskatchewan.

J. J. Deck, whose hobby is catching rattlers, reports that the rattlesnakes are generally following the direction of the South Saskatchewan River. He says he has killed 50 rattlers in less than an hour near the river.

BARNUM, MIDGET WERE COUSINS, AUTHOR CLAIMS

BUFFALO, N.Y. (P) — Showman P. T. Barnum and the fabulous midget, Tom Thumb, were actually fifth cousins, says a meticulous local author, who makes it his business as a genealogist to verify such things.

C. A. Cleveland Shrigley, the author, says he was especially careful in his family tree tracings — because he found at the outset that he was related to both Barnum and the midget.

Shrigley is trying to bring the memory of tiny Tom out from under Barnum's hulking shadow by writing a biography of Tom himself. Shrigley discovered that Barnum and Tom were descended from a Thomas Sherwood, who turned up in America at Boston in 1634 and later moved to Fairfield, Conn.

Barnum Mum On Relationship
If Barnum was aware that he was related to his money-making midget, he was careful not to splash the fact before the public.

No mention of their kinship has shown up in thousands of letters Shrigley has received from all over the world since he began research on Tom Thumb by way of letters to editors of hundreds of daily newspapers.

Tom Thumb was born Jan. 11, 1838, and christened Charles Sherwood Stratton, a rather ponderous moniker for a fellow only 27 inches tall at the peak of his fame and fame.

Midget Found Accidentally
In his autobiography, Barnum wrote that he stumbled across the midget on a visit to Bridgeport, Conn., in November, 1842. The showman's fortunes at his famous American Museum in New York were starting to ebb and he needed a new attraction.

During the visit, Barnum wrote, his brother who owned a tavern casually mentioned little Charlie Stratton. Barnum looked up the child, who was 2 feet tall then, and signed him up through his father, Charles Sherwood Stratton promptly became General Tom Thumb, aged by Barnum's active mind from 4 to 11.

Added Embellishment
Barnum tacked on the seven years to increase Tom's value as an attraction, in the same way he advertised the midget as "just arrived from England," according to the showman's biographers who accepted Barnum's story of the meeting of the pair.

After years of tours with Barnum in America, Europe and even Australia, Tom Thumb was lavishly married — at Barnum's expense — to Lavinia Warren, a midget school teacher under contract to the showman.

Youngster Runs His Own Newspaper

NUTLEY, N.J. (P) — Eleven-year-old Edward Wettach wants to be a newspaper editor and, what's more, he's working at the job right now.

The youngster puts out a weekly paper on his father's mimeograph machine consisting of neighborhood news. It sells for 2 cents and the circulation has risen to 37. Edward has a staff of five reporter-circulation men.

He got the idea for a newspaper from a comic book he was reading while laid up in bed with a sore foot.

KUALA LUMPUR (P) — Arabic schools in the northern Malay states are responsible for turning out Malaysia's future Moslem religious leaders. Resembling the monasteries of England in the Middle Ages, the Arabic institutions are maintained by Malays out of a religious fund. Students pay no school fees.

Students spend eight years in these institutions and go to Cairo or Mecca for higher religious studies.

Missing Woman Is Found in Harrisburg

State police of the Gettysburg substation said today that Miss Anna Catherine Neil, 29, of East Berlin R. D., reported missing from her home since last Friday afternoon, was found Tuesday by her father in Harrisburg.

Police said the woman was taken by her father, first to state police headquarters in Harrisburg and then to the hospital.

A charge of aggravated assault and battery, filed by state police with Justice of the Peace Gerald Orndorff, New Oxford, in which Miss Neil is charged with striking her mother, is not being pressed at this time.

EXTORTIONIST IS ARRESTED

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (P) — Louis Shandra, 42, has been arrested by the FBI on charges of sending an extortion note to a Pittston union official the day before the official was killed by a bomb which exploded in his car.

The arrest Tuesday of the ex-coal miner came nearly a year after Charles Louis Mecadon, 50, president of Local 8005, Pittston, United Mine Workers, was killed by the bomb while driving alone through Wilkes-Barre.

Several hours before he was killed, Mecadon turned a letter over to postal authorities which demanded $2,000 on the threat of killing him and his son, Francis.

Arthur Cornelius, Jr., special agent in charge of the FBI Philadelphia office, said the FBI's jurisdiction in the case was limited to the sending of the extortion note and that any action concerning the union leader's death would have to be made by the Wilkes-Barre authorities.

Shandra, formerly a breaker boy in a coal mine, but unemployed when arrested, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Thomas C. Gibbons of Wilkes-Barre and held in $25,000 bail for the federal grand jury on charges of violating the Federal Extortion Act.

'Possum Is Caught "Playing Possum"

NEWARK, N.J. (P) — Neighborhood housewives had been worried recently by unexplained midnight pantry raids and garbage can forays.

The mystery was solved with the capture of a 'possum on the steps of a local hotel. The captor, Samuel Brantley, owner of the hotel, used to hunt 'possum in his younger days in Georgia.

When Brantley seized the animal by the throat the unlucky 'possum was playing possum.

Says Selfishness Cause Of Divorce

BANGOR, Me. (P) — Selfishness

is the real cause of divorce, says Paul W. Alexander, presiding judge of the integrated family court in Toledo, O.

Lack of money, women and liquor are only symptoms, says the judge, a visitor here. Even the poorest people can get along together if they have the will to succeed in their marriage.

He believes that automobiles make delinquency a lot easier. He doubts that movies, TV or comics have contributed to juvenile delinquency.

WEST GERMAN PRESIDENT IS POPULAR MAN

BONN, Germany (AP) — The folksy president of West Germany wears no man's collar, but anybody's hat.

Forty-eight million, fellow citizens chuckle with Theodor Heuss (rhymes with Royce) as he gleefully covers his white locks with an endless variety of headgear.

The 68-year-old former history professor has to attend a continual round of official ceremonies, ranging from accrediting foreign ambassadors to christening ships and opening fairs. With a trouper's zest, he changes his black silk topper for a businessman's omburg or a sailor's knitted cap — or whatever else fits the occasion.

Speeches Contain Humor
When he makes speeches, which is frequently, he avoids ponderous academic language and favors his remarks with good humor.

The younger generation likes him, because he has junked starchy formality. Oldsters are startled by his home-spun manner but find it, in the long run, as appetizing as Apfelstrudel.

Political feuding passes Heuss by. On the high and impartial level of the presidency, he makes many friends inside Germany and rarely a foe. Since 1949, when rival republics were sponsored by the Allies and the Russians, Germany has had two presidents. Communist Wilhelm Pieck heads the Soviet Zone state.

The West German president is strictly limited by the constitution to symbolic duties. He can not intervene in the government or veto parliament's laws. He must keep himself above all parties and hold no other public or private office while he is president.

Politically Desirable
Heuss was on the Allies' white list, along with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, when Germany was occupied in 1945. Certified as politically desirable, he was picked by American authorities to become co-publisher of the first postwar newspaper in Heidelberg, the Rhein-Neckar Zeitung.

He has always relished the smell of printer's ink. From 1912 to 1918, he was chief editor of the Neckar Zeitung in Heidelberg. He has written biographies of German philosophers, industrialists, and statesmen.

Critics used to raise two points about Heuss' career, but that did not block his rise to the presidency.

He was a deputy of the German Democratic Party in 1933 and joined with many other anti-Communist but non-Nazi deputies in voting emergency powers to Adolf Hitler after the Reichstag fire was blamed on the Reds.

Later on Heuss was a brief contributor to Das Reich, a cultural periodical before it was taken over openly by Nazi propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels.

Allied investigators cleared Heuss of any suspicion of pro-Nazism, however. He did not prosper in the Third Reich, where his books were finally burned on Hitler's order.

Favors European Federation
Heuss considers himself a good European and is committed in general terms to federation of the continent. He also predicts that the German people will not be duped by neo-Nazi fanatics into another nationalistic binge. "The restless fever to impose our will on the rest of the world is dead forever," he claims.

World Cruise Of Five Years Ends

BALTIMORE (AP) — You'd think Bill Murnan, a youthful 56, would be ready for a rest after a five-year-trip around the world in a 30-foot-yawl.

But Bill, who stopped here en route to New York, plans to sell the yawl and buy a station wagon to tour the United States. "I've been at sea since 1919," he says. "There are an awful lot of things I have to do on land."

He started from Los Angeles and visited the West Indies, Ascension Island, South Africa, Australia, New Guinea and Hawaii. Illness forced his wife to abandon the trip in Samoa. She's been knocking around in Europe awaiting his return.

The harvest is being carried out in such a way that the digging up of the Skunk Cabbage plants will not develop spots to start erosion, Bacon explained, because as soon as an area is dug it is planted to native grasses. The twofold result he says, is increase in forest revenue and improvement of the high mountain meadows where the plant grows.

WINNIPEG (AP) — Professor R. A. Wardle of the University of Manitoba says a hog in the house would make a useful pet.

The zoology department chairman told a veterinary association meeting that the hog, for one thing, would dispose of "those lawn grass clippings you dump secretly at night on someone else's lot." Prof. Wardle said he had read that one pound of lawn clippings is equal to three pounds of meal.

"The hog is undoubtedly intelligent and I imagine he could easily be house-trained. I see no reason why, in time, we should not have some quite desirable varieties of pigs sitting on our doorsteps."

Consumption of water in the United States averages about 1,000 gallons every day.

DU PONT LEAVES $75 MILLION 2 TRUST FUNDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The late Lamont du Pont, once head of the Du Pont industrial organization, left an estate estimated to be worth $75 million in personal property and $325,000 in real estate. He died last July 24.

An affidavit filed Tuesday in the register of wills office here set the estimates. It was filed by the executors of the estate, the Wilmington Trust Co. and Du Pont's widow, Margaret F. du Pont. Attached to the affidavit was a copy of Du Pont's will. The will itself was filed in Wilmington, Del.

This document creates for the widow a marital trust made up of approximately 50 per cent of his adjusted gross estate and gives to her the power of appointment of the beneficiary at his death.

Also left to Mrs. Du Pont in the will are all of Lamont's personal and household effects.

Mrs. Du Pont also received the residence known as St. Amour and the cottage at Fisher's Island, Suffolk County, N. Y.

Trusts For Sons
The will outlines two trust funds set up for two of Lamont's sons, David Flett du Pont and Willie Harrington du Pont.

The trust for David is made up of 600 shares of common stock in the Christiana Securities Co., estimated to be worth $3 million dollars. For Willie, some 6,875 shares of Noranda Mines, Ltd., an Ontario, Canada, corporation are set aside. These shares are currently valued at $5,700,000.

The trusts are to continue under terms of the will.

The remainder of the estate is to be held in trust for the benefit of children by a former marriage with the net income to them for life and at their death to their surviving children.

The children are Lamont Jr., Pierre Samuel 3d, Mrs. George P. Edmonds, Mrs. James M. Faulkner, Mrs. Esther du Pont Weir, Mrs. Richard E. Riegel and Mrs. George W. Collier.

GOP CAMPAIGN IN "LOW GEAR" DELIBERATELY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some of Gen. Eisenhower's friends have thrown rocks at him for not campaigning more actively, naming names, pin-pointing issues and getting down to cases on whatever his program is.

This hasn't seemed to dishearten the general any, at least not publicly. Republicans who talked with him said he told them he had deliberately kept the campaign in low gear until now and now he'll open up.

But, if it's any consolation to Eisenhower's friends who think he's been tardy, the Republican presidential candidate in 1948, Gov. Dewey of New York, dawdled even longer. His campaign didn't get going until late September.

Other Similarities
The delay by both Eisenhower and Dewey in building a fire under the Democrats was by no means the only similarity between the two men, at least before the speechmaking part of their campaigns began.

Dewey's aides made it known he didn't want any of the people around him to be overconfident about winning.

Eisenhower didn't want to seem overconfident. In fact, he said he was going to run scared.

Dewey conferred frequently about foreign affairs with John Foster Dulles, who was mentioned at most likely to be secretary of state, if Dewey won. Dewey decided to smash heavily at President Truman's operations in the foreign field.

Taft Rift Not Healed
Eisenhower has conferred about foreign affairs with Dulles, who has been mentioned as possibly the general's choice for secretary of state, if the general wins. Eisenhower already has smashed heavily at the Truman administration's operations in the foreign field.

Dewey said the Taft-Hartley Labor Law might need some changing. So did Eisenhower.

Dewey met with the man he defeated for the Republican nomination, Sen. Taft of Ohio. The rift between them was never healed.

Eisenhower is supposed to meet with Taft, whom he defeated for the Republican nomination. It is still questionable whether the rift between the Eisenhower and Taft factions can be completely healed.

Gets 6 Months For Theft Of $30,000

CHICAGO (AP)—A $42-a-week messenger who played Santa Claus with $30,000 of his boss's money was sentenced to six months in jail Tuesday.

Anthony Adams, 4-year-old bachelor, said he forged company vouchers to get the money to give to needy friends and relatives.

Adams worked in the office of William Union Prince Jr., president of the Union Stock Yard and Transit Co. He said in court that he signed Prince's name to vouchers he later exchanged for checks, then cashed the checks.

Hearst's Widow Is Seeking $2,500,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Millcent V. Hearst wants 2½ million dollars from the estate of her late husband, publisher William Randolph Hearst.

In a suit filed Tuesday, she said Hearst died owing her $2,416,500 under two agreements, signed in 1921 and 1927, giving her up to $20,000 monthly for support of herself and their five sons. Sometimes he failed to make these payments, she said.

Mrs. Hearst said executors of the state have neither acknowledged nor rejected her claim, and she wants an accounting.

Hearst's will left most of his estate in two trusts, one for the benefit of the widow and the sons, and the other for charitable purposes.

SENATOR TAIT AND IKE MEET AFTER SEPT. 10

By JACK BELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio said Wednesday he probably will meet with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower shortly after Sept. 10 to discuss the senator's role in the Republican presidential campaign.

Taft told this reporter by telephone from his Murray Bay, Canada, vacation spot that he expects to speak for Eisenhower and the Republican ticket but doesn't know yet how extensive his campaigning will be.

The Ohio senator was defeated for the GOP nomination by Eisenhower in a bitter battle at the Chicago party convention in July. There have been some reports that Taft, although he promised support of the ticket immediately after the convention, might not take an active part in the campaign.

Ready For Stump

The Ohio senator made it clear that he is prepared to take the stump for Eisenhower but he added he will not engage in any "whistle stop" campaigning.

"I shall certainly make some speeches in Ohio," Taft said. "I have a dozen or so invitations to speak in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, but I have put off accepting any of them until some definite arrangements are made."

Taft said he wants to discuss with Eisenhower the issues of the campaign, adding that he is "interested in what the new administration is going to be like if the general is elected."

FILE ADMINISTRATION BOND

An administration bond in the estate of Alma R. Wirt, late of Strasburg Twp., has been filed with the county register and recorder, John S. Wirt, Gettysburg R. 4, is administrator of the $600 estate.

MILK DEALERS SEEK CHANGES IN OPERATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Association of Milk Dealers today sought a bigger chunk of the consumers' milk dollar.

The association proposed to the Milk Control Commission a long series of changes in operating methods that have existed between dealers and producers since 1937.

Producer representatives immediately expressed surprise at the number of changes sought by the dealers.

"Raid" On Producers

John J. Snyder, former commission member and now counsel for the Allied Milk Producers Cooperative, Inc. Johnstown, told a reporter:

"This would be the biggest raid on producers in my long experience with milk control."

Some of the changes would: Allow dairies to pay lower wholesale prices to farmers for waste between the time the milk leaves the farm and reaches the consumers' doorstep.

Want Lower Prices

Enable dealers to pay lower wholesale prices for bulk milk sold to candy manufacturers upon receiving special permission from the commission.

Outlaw the practice of dealers giving away prizes to consumers or providing stores with coolers for storage of milk.

Extend for five days the monthly deadline for dealer payment of bills to producers.

Neither dealers nor producers were able to estimate the net cost of the proposed changes.

MARTIN LAUDS EISENHOWER; SEES HARMONY

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania, after a long conference with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said Wednesday the general has "some very good ideas" on how to achieve economy in this country.

Martin said finances and defense constituted the main topics of their conversation.

"We're in full agreement that we've got to make a very careful survey of what the United States can afford," Martin said. "It won't do us any good to win against aggression if we're going to go broke."

Has "Good Ideas"
"He's got some very good ideas about what we can afford in this country."

Martin said he felt that Eisenhower's speech Tuesday before the American Legion convention gave the "legionnaires" a plan they can follow. He said he thought the general made a "marvelous impression" with the Legion speech.

Part of the discussion Wednesday was concerned with politics, Martin said.

He said he thought Eisenhower's campaign is being "very well conducted." He said he agreed that, at this time, the pace should be slow.

"You want the peak of the wave much later," the senator said. "You can't hit a high pitch and keep it going until November."

Pennsylvania, he said, is "in very good shape for Eisenhower." The senator said he had no doubt

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. the Republicans would carry the state.

Martin said he felt, speaking of Pennsylvania specifically, that any ill feeling as between Eisenhower's supporters and those of Sen. Robert A. Taft has been put aside. "I don't know a single Taft backer in Pennsylvania who is not now for Eisenhower," Martin said.

He said he hoped the general would make some speeches in Pennsylvania later in the campaign. "But there are so many states in worse shape than we are that they have to be given consideration," he said.

Prominent Banker Dies On Wednesday

WELLSBORO, Pa. (AP)—Claude E. Bennett, prominent Tioga County banker, died early Wednesday in a hospital here after an illness of several weeks. He was 73.

A native of Bath, N. Y., Bennett started in the banking business there. He came to Wellsboro in 1904 as a clerk in the Tioga County Savings and Trust Co.

Bennett was elected president of the Tioga bank in 1920 and in 1942 was named president of the First National Bank of Wellsboro.

He was president of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association in 1939-40 and was Pennsylvania president of the American Bankers Association in 1949-50.

His widow and four daughters survive. Funeral services will be Friday.

Mother To Regain Custody Of Child

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barr have agreed to give up the 4½-year-old boy they say they reared as their son since October, 1948.

The Pittsburgh couple, calling off a court fight, agreed to return Larry Eastman to his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Buckner of Whatcom County, Wash.

Mrs. Buckner's former husband, Kenneth Eastman, placed the boy with the Barrs after he and his wife were divorced.

Mrs. Buckner began court action last month to regain custody of the child. Judge Ralph T. Bell ordered a formal court hearing Wednesday so legal papers ending the case could be signed.

British Bomber Ends Record-Smashing Flight

Crowd stands by British twin-jet Canberra bomber at Aldergrove Air Field hangar, Northern Ireland, after its record-smashing Atlantic Ocean round trip. Plane made flight to Gander, Newfoundland, and back in 10 hours, 2 minutes, marking first time any plane flew both ways in one day. It carried a crew of three. Unofficial flying time for 4,144-mile flight was recorded as 7 hours, 49 minutes by plane's makers. (AP Wirephoto via radio from London)

Indo-China Has Town For Orphans

HANOI, Indo-China (AP)—There's a "Boys Town" in Indo-China, too. It's right here in Hanoi—headquarters city for the French Union forces warring against the Communist-led Vietminh.

The real name of "Boys Town" is "Cité du Christ Roi"—the City of Christ, the King. It's an institution run by Catholic priests and sisters to help orphaned boys—whether they drift in from territory held by the Vietminh or the French Union forces.

Father Paul Seitz, of the Paris Foreign Missions, is hopeful that "Boys Town" may someday have quarters for 1,000 war orphans. Right now, 450 boys make up its "citizens."

U. S. AIDS PHILIPPINES
Manila (AP)—The Mutual Security Agency reports that U. S. aid totaling 47 million dollars was granted the Philippines during the fiscal year ended June 30. The principal allocations were $15,095,000 for essential commodity imports; $13,723,000 for agriculture

PITTSBURGH (AP)—H. J. Heinz Co., reporting increased sales, has told stockholders it is optimistic over crop outlooks despite "conflicting weather reports."

Sales of $49,316,000 for the quarter ending July 31, compared to $46,841,000 for the same period last year, were reported by President H. J. Heinz Tuesday.

INDIANS GET OIL DIVIDEND

CARDSTON, Canada (AP)—Indians of the Blood Reservation near here have just received their first dividend from the sale of their oil rights. The initial dividend was $21,000. Several companies now are making tests on the reservation and two oil wells are being drilled.

Until the end of the last century little but the whim of the victor governed the fate of the captured enemy in wartime.

Tungsten Vital To War Effort

TUNGSTEN, N. C. (AP)—Because Chinese Communists control much of the world's supply of tungsten, this little mining town has become a strategic center in the U. S. defense program. It is one of the few places in the country where the metal has been found.

The Hamme mine and mill is working to maintain supplies and build up a stockpile. Tungsten went into the A-bombs in World War II. It will also have a part in the H-bomb if and when it is built. It is used in jet engines, light bulb filaments, radio and radar. Cutting tools and armor-piercing shells also use it.

The deposit here was discovered in 1901. The trouble with mining is that prices varied so sharply. It cost $100 for 20 pounds in World War I, but imports from China later brought the price down to $12 for 20 pounds.

Now the U. S. government has guaranteed a price of $63 for 20 pounds to domestic producers and the Hamme works are booming.

CENTER OF RED RESISTANCE IS BOOMING CITY

TAIPEH, Formosa — A great change has come to Taipei since it became the Republic of China capital in the dark days late in 1949 after the Communist conquest of the mainland.

Taipei today is a crowded, bustling and growing city. Many new houses have been built, but they cannot take care of the steady influx of Chinese and foreigners.

Authorities are carrying out an ambitious town improvement plan, although they are hampered by a lack of funds. Stately, tree-lined asphalted avenues are replacing the narrow, muddy streets. Large areas in and around the city are being converted into parks.

Foreigners Increase
The foreign community was a mere handful in the spring of 1950, when a Communist invasion appeared possible, now it is well over the 1,000 mark.

Most are Americans. And most of the Americans are in the Military Assistance Advisory

Users To Protest Power Increases

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A Committee composed of a number of local commercial and industrial users of electric power are planning to appeal the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission's recent authorization of a three million dollar rate increase for the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. to the State Superior Court.

The committee, in a meeting yesterday also decided to appeal the PUC's elimination of certain preferential power rates for large volume commercial and industrial users.

Financial backing of the appeal will be sought through contributions from members of the committee, a spokesman said.

group (MAAG) under Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, which is rearming and retraining Chiang Kai-shek's forces.

Little Amusement
A number of American and British firms are in business here. Missionary activities on Formosa are also expanding under the free rein granted by the Nationalists. Some of the missionaries were driven from the mainland by the Chinese Reds.

There are restaurants that close early, and there are some movies, but there is little else in the way of amusement. Most foreigners do their entertaining at home. If you are in the social swim it is a rare week that goes by without a dozen invitations to cocktail parties and dinners.

The climate, although not given to extremes, is trying. There are long spells of rain. During the summer it often is hot and humid.

Authorities are planning to stir up tourist interest in Taipei. As one method of attracting tourists, they plan to modernize the Grand Hotel, perched on a tree-covered hill overlooking Taipei. At present the only half-way comfortable place in which the foreign traveler can stay is the Friends of China Club, where the amenities include good Western food and well-stocked bar.

FARMER IN THE WELL

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—A 27-year-old farmer was cleaning a well pump with gasoline recently when he was overcome by the fumes and toppled over into a 7-foot well. He landed in 4 inches of water but his wife said he was still unconscious 15 minutes later when she pulled him out. A physician who examined him said he didn't have a scratch.

ATOM PRODUCTS ARE AIDING TO BETTER LIVING

LONDON (AP)—British atomic energy plants are today producing about 100 radioactive substances for everyday use in medicine, science and industry.

The program is part of a broadening effort to exploit atomic energy for better peacetime living. Hospitals, research laboratories and factories in Britain and 26 other countries regularly receive these civilian by-products of British atomic weapons manufacture.

Bids Body Study

Use of the radioactive substances (isotopes) has revolutionized scientific research into the workings of the human body. Introduced into the body, isotopes can be tracked with Geiger counters through the complex functions of the human system. Scientists are thus given clues enabling them to develop means of keeping the body in proper working condition.

The versatile isotopes are also an aid to measuring a patient's total blood volume, the rate of blood flow and efficiency of glands. They can destroy human tissues or retard their unnatural growth. A beginning has been made in the use of radioactive isotopes for cancer treatment.

In agricultural research, the isotopes are valuable tools. Insect habits are studied by marking the insects with identify-isotopes. Isotopes point out diet deficiencies in diseased animals.

Industrial Production Improved
Isotopes also reduce costs and improve production methods in industry. In factories, they can, among other things, eliminate static electricity which is often a dangerous by-product of industrial processes. They are used to measure the density of metals and to trace the sources of water and air pollution.

Some 700 types of radioactive isotopes are known. But British agencies distribute only about 100 for which specific use have been found. Their mass production has

Averaged 605 Miles On Ocean Crossing

LONDON (AP)—Official timers announced today that the British jet bomber which crossed the Atlantic both ways in one day averaged 605.52 miles an hour on the 2,072-mile leg from west to east, a new record.

The Canberra bomber's entire round trip yesterday from Aldergrove Airfield, near Belfast, to Gander, Nfld., and return took only 10 hours, 3 minutes, 29.28 seconds. That included a stopover of 2 hours, 4 minutes, 56.1 seconds at been made possible by development of the atomic pile, the large scale atom-splitter.

Gander. Actual flying time for the epic round trip was 7 hours, 58 minutes, 35.18 seconds. The official times were announced by the Royal Aero Club, which observed the flight on behalf of the Federation Internationale Aeronautique, ruling body of the aerial speed world.

MILL WORKER AND 10 FRIENDS OPEN CHURCH

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (P) — A hosiery mill worker—turned Church of God preacher — has become something of a 20th century Johnny Appleseed who plants churches.

When John D. Smith heard the call to preach seven years ago, he had no church and no congregation. With 10 friends who formed his original flock, he set out to build his own church.

Friends In Construction Business

Some of the friends had connections in the construction business. They were invaluable in the building of a stone structure which was named the A. D. Smith Church (Chattanooga) Church.

Smith, who never before laid a stone, was on the job every day as a laborer.

The new preacher's sermons and spirit attracted followers rapidly. But when the congregation had grown to 351 members, three years ago, Smith set out for new fields. He chose the nearby East Ridge district, where he had been born.

Smith borrowed money to buy a lot. A short time later he was offered a $900 profit for the property. He sold it and bought several lots.

Started Preaching In Tent

Again without a congregation, he erected a tent and held Sunday meetings, working weekdays on the foundation of his church.

He had never laid a brick but one of his new followers gave him lessons. Soon he was working late into the night. Youngsters of the neighborhood dropped by to watch and Smith persuaded them to mix mortar and carry bricks.

The church was completed recently, three years after it was started. Smith says "If the church has 50,000 bricks in it, I guess I laid 45,000."

Building Worth $75,000
Members of the congregation,

How Many Organizations In Adams County?

How many fraternal, civic and other organizations are in Adams County? The Gettysburg Times would like to know.

A conservative estimate places the number of such organizations at near 200.

As one of the features of the forthcoming Golden Anniversary edition of The Gettysburg Times the names of all the organizations and their officers will be published. This has never been done before and its publication is certain to attract considerable interest.

This is an appeal to the officers of all the organizations to send us the official name of your organization and the names of the officers. Please mail to the Editor, The Gettysburg Times, Gettysburg, Pa.

Land Reform In China Backfires

HONG KONG (P) — Independent underground reports say the Communist "land reform" program in one big area in South China has backfired, bringing on "famine and chaos."

One newspaper says that in Kwangsi province Red efforts to seize the land sent thousands of farmers flocking to the cities, leaving thousands of acres idle and the countryside facing starvation.

The report says 40,000 farmers in four counties alone have been dispossessed, and possibly 3,000 of them have gone over to the guerrillas.

now grown to 254, estimate the value of the building at $75,000. Smith, who doesn't count his own labor, says the cost to his followers will be $35,000.

The congregation had expected Smith to settle down after building a church in the place of his boyhood. A few days ago, however, they were surprised by an announcement:

Their preacher is leaving to build up a church near Decatur, Ala.

Japs Will Close Ancient Gold Mine

TOKYO (P) — A company decision to close Japan's most famous gold mine seems likely to establish a Western-style "ghost town" in the Orient.

Some 580 miners and the town of 10,000 which depends upon the mine are protesting against the shutdown on historic Sado Island, once a place of exile for Japan's emperors.

The vein was struck 351 years ago and has been worked almost steadily ever since. Once the mine employed 100,000 men but now the paydirt has petered out.

JACK FREES TREED BOY
NEWARK, N.J. (P) — A woman called police when she heard Gerald Grande Jr. screaming from his 12-foot-high perch in a nearby tree. When the emergency squad arrived they found Gerald's right knee securely wedged into a crotch of the tree.

After pulling and tugging efforts had failed the youngster was freed when a small hydraulic jack finally forced the branches apart.

President William V. S. Tubman has a new yacht, bought in Holland for $210,000 but valued at more than a million dollars after refitting. The 463-ton craft is named President Edward J. Royce in honor of a former president.

MARION, Ill. (P) — Meet the Joneses: Floyd P. Jones, 20, and Norma Jones, 16, applied for a marriage license in Williamson County recently. Jones was under age so his mother, Mrs. Pearl Jones, signed his application. Because Miss Jones was also under age her mother, also named Pearl Jones, signed her application. The Pearl Joneses are not related either.

TEXAS EASTERN BRINGS NEW GROWTH TO LOCAL AREAS

A TEXAS EASTERN worker on cylinder of a compressor similar to ones to be installed at new Texas Eastern station near Marietta, Pa.

Areas near Texas Eastern pipelines in Adams, York, and Lancaster counties will receive new benefits as a result of the company's expansion program.

COMPRESSOR STATION CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY

To bring more natural gas from Southwest fields to homes and industries in Pennsylvania and the Eastern Seaboard, Texas Eastern is constructing a new compressor station near Marietta, Pa. The station will be a 10,000 horsepower reciprocating compressor station of modern design, consisting of a main compressor building, an office and garage building, and other customary equipment.

MAP SHOWS the location of the new station and roughly indicates the route of Texas Eastern pipelines through Lancaster, York, and Adams counties.

MORE TEXAS EASTERN families will become permanent residents of the area as result of current expansion program.

NEW RESIDENTS COME INTO AREA

Engineers, technicians, and construction personnel will reside in the three counties as work progresses on Texas Eastern construction and related projects. To the extent that their payrolls are used in purchasing food, lodging, supplies and other services here, local people and communities near the pipelines will benefit.

Later on, as construction is completed, operating and maintenance personnel and their families will settle near the Marietta station as permanent residents.

A Bit Of History About Your Own Adams County

This is the 30th in a series of historical talks given over Radio Station WGET by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Adeline Sager professor of history at Gettysburg College, on some of the outstanding events and interesting episodes in the development of Adams County.

One of the institutions in Adams County which has established itself in the community as a special object of common interest is the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. On March 2, 1826, the first meeting of the board of directors of the institution which the General Synod of the Lutheran Church in the United States had determined to establish was held in Hagerstown, Md., when an important decision affecting this community was made.

When the 19th century opened the churches of the United States undertook to solve the problem of ministerial supply by establishing theological seminaries. Such an institution, under private auspices, but having a Lutheran connection, was opened in Otsego County, N. Y., according to the terms of the will of the Rev. John Christopher Hartwick. If this institution had been more centrally located with reference to the Lutheran population of that day it could have flourished and met the need which the growing church was feeling. However, there soon was established in 1820 a general organization of Lutheran synods, the General Synod, which desiring to meet the needs of Americans by Lutheran ministrations had as one of its chief purposes the adequate provision for the supply of American pastors. Indeed, at the organization meeting in 1820 a committee was appointed to prepare a plan for a seminary.

Some Oppose Seminary
This committee found serious opposition to such a proposition from a very noisy minority in the rural districts of Pennsylvania, and recommended, at the first regular convention of the General Synod in 1821, that the establishment of a seminary be deferred for several years, which recommendation was unanimously adopted. It was, however, recognized by those who believed in the mission of the General Synod as a means of truly promoting American Lutheranism, that a seminary must be established, and that a new committee must be appointed. This was done at the convention in 1825, and the report of that committee, adopted at the same convention, resulted in the actual establishment of a seminary.

A leading figure in promoting the idea was a very young pastor then serving the parish at New Market, Va., who had begun the instruction of a number of young men in his paragonage, the Rev. Samuel Simon Schmucker. In 1824 he interested his synod, the Synod of Maryland and Virginia, and in February, 1825, a special conference of four young ministers was held at Martinsburg, Va., where a resolution was adopted that they engage in the work of founding a theological seminary, to be under the direction of the Lutheran Church, and for its benefit, and that they begin work at once. These four young men were the Rev. Charles P. Krauth of Martinsburg, the Rev. John Winter of Garardstown, Va., the Rev. Frederick Ruthrauff of Williamsport, Md., and the Rev. Benjamin Kurtz of Hagerstown.

Discuss Location
At this conference practical suggestions as to the location of the institution, and the personnel of its faculty were discussed and a collection was taken which amounted to $5. Their deliberations and suggestions were immediately reported to the Rev. Mr. Schmucker, 100 miles down the Shenandoah Valley, who expressed his deep gratification over the interest shown in the matter so important to him and over the practical suggestions made. It encouraged him to set the official wheels in motion.

The first official act was the appointment by the Synod of Maryland and Virginia of a committee to report a plan for the immediate organization of a theological seminary. Schmucker was appointed chairman of this committee and he was ready with a plan drawn up in advance by him. This was adopted the same day. It outlined the method of founding and maintaining the proposed seminary and had this specific provision, namely that the school "must be patronized by the General Synod and be officially put into operation by that body."

Adopt Report

Two weeks later, in 1825, the action of the synod of Maryland and Virginia was brought before the General Synod at its regular convention, and a committee was appointed to consider the matter. This committee consisted of Benjamin Kurtz, chairman, the Revs. Schmucker, Herbst and Benjamin Keller, and the Messrs. Harry and Hauptman. The report of this committee, which was practically the same as that adopted by the Synod of Maryland and Virginia, was adopted the next day. It was this action that actually brought about the founding of the seminary.

Immediately after the adoption of the report, it was resolved that the officers of the General Synod should send agents throughout the United States to solicit contributions for the seminary. In appointing these agents the officers of the General Synod did not limit themselves to their own constituent synods, but tried for support from the whole Lutheran Church in America. In addition, instructions were given to commission the Rev. Benjamin Kurtz to go to Europe at once to solicit contributions of money and books for the new institution. Incidentally, Kurtz did go to Europe and returned with contributions, both of money and books, of such amount as materially to aid in getting the new institution firmly established.

Elect 15 Directors

The General Synod then proceeded to elect a board of directors, and in this election were obliged to be limited to persons connected with synods then members of the General Synod. Nine clergymen and six laymen were elected. The resolutions adopted also provided for the election of a professor for the seminary and on the first ballot the Rev. S. S. Schmucker was elected. He immediately accepted the position and his salary for the first year was fixed at $500 and a residence. He was directed to prepare a constitution for the seminary and to submit it to the board of directors, who were directed to apply for an act of incorporation.

The final action was the instruction to the board to hold its first meeting in Hagerstown on March 2, 1826. At that meeting it was ordered that the special business should be "to decide at which place the seminary should be located, and to make all such arrangements as they may deem expedient" to enable the new institution to be functioning. It was resolved in this connection that "the seminary to be located in such place as shall, at the close of three months, offer the greatest advantages."

When the board of directors met for their first official meeting on March 2, 1826, they organized by electing J. G. Schmucker (father of S. S. Schmucker), president; Charles Philip Krauth, secretary, and Charles A. Barnitz, treasurer. Five clergymen and four laymen were present, constituting a quorum, and the meeting was open for important business.

Receive Three Offers

The following five towns were considered as possible locations—Frederick and Hagerstown in Maryland, Carlisle, Chambersburg and Gettysburg in Pennsylvania. However, only three of these submitted definite proposals to the board. Hagerstown offered $6,635 in personal pledges. Carlisle offered $2,000 in money, a professor's house for five years, $3,000 toward the erection of a building, a lot of ground 100 feet square, the use of a lecture room in Dickinson College, and free access to the library and the lectures of the Dickinson College professors on condition that the professor of the seminary should act as a member of the college faculty and teach Hebrew and Oriental literature in the college. Gettysburg offered $7,000 in money and the use of the Gettysburg Academy building until the seminary should secure its own buildings. After a long debate a ballot was taken in which Gettysburg received four votes, Hagerstown three, and Carlisle two. No place having received a majority, a second ballot was taken and on this Gettysburg received six votes and Hagerstown three. Gettysburg was finally chosen not only because it offered the largest financial inducement but also because it was regarded as most accessible and most centrally located for the synods then in the General Synod.

Test-tube promise of practical reality

No longer is the atom the smallest bit of indestructible matter. Its innermost secrets have been discovered. It can be converted into energy or rearranged to form new matter almost at the will of science. The art of transmutation is now a reality. Progress in pharmacy and medicine is equally striking. Many drugs which were laboriously isolated from nature may now be synthesized economically in the laboratory. Many diseases which formerly terminated life or lingered for months may now be cured in a few days. Day after day, trained scientists study the problems of medicine and pharmacy. Although disappointments far exceed successes, the work goes on. Test-tube promises eventually become practical realities available to you in this pharmacy.

LEGION URGED TO HELP KEEP NATION STRONG

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Kimball today asked the American Legion to help keep America strong on the seas.

"You can help us," he told Legionnaires at their national convention, "by supporting our requests for appropriations to create and maintain the strong armed forces this country is going to need as long as aggression stalks the world."

Kimball followed Secretary of the Army Pace in the list of speakers for this morning's convention session. In their prepared remarks both extolled the merits of their respective services.

The Legion today elects its national commander. Lewis K. Gough, 44, Pasadena, Calif., and Walter E. Alessandrini, 39, Philadelphia, are major contenders.

PUC WILL HEAR PHONE APPEAL

HARRISBURG (AP)—Further hearings in the Bell Telephone Co.'s proposed 32 million dollar a year rate increase will be held by the Public Utility Commission Sept. 10-12.

Commission Chairman Leo Schwartz set the new dates at the conclusion of this week's series of hearings during which he denied that Bell has received preferential treatment.

Anne K. Alpern, Pittsburgh City Solicitor, charged yesterday that Bell had been "put on the preferred list" since the PUC had not required an estimate on the company's reproduction costs over a 10-year period.

Schwartz left it up to the company to decide whether to provide the figure, saying it already has been ordered to produce five-year figures.

"We don't care how big or how small or how smart or stupid the company (Bell) is," he told Miss Alpern. "The commission will decide this case on the whole picture, not on any single figure."

In Britain the practice of lawyers, called solicitors, is limited to certain courts. Lawyers classified as barristers can appear before any tribunal in Britain.

early in 1827. The seminary was housed in the Gettysburg Academy building according to the agreement. This building was later bought by the promoters of the educational institutions to spring up to support the seminary — the gymnasium and the college. In 1832 the seminary was removed to its newly-erected building on the ridge to the west of the town where it gave its name to one of the most famous positions in American military history — Seminary Ridge.

COUNCIL HEARS SAFETY APPEAL FOR CHILDREN

The matter of additional safety protection for the children of Littlestown was the main issue of discussion at the monthly meeting of the Borough Council on Tuesday evening in the office of the borough secretary, Roger J. Keefe. North Queen St. Dr. Leonard L. Potter, local physician, solicited the cooperation of Council in protecting the children when they cross the streets, going to and from school and while at play on the community playground on Maple Avenue. He explained that while he was on vacation, he observed various traffic systems for the protection of school children in many of the towns he motored through, and he felt that if the Borough Council would make an effort to install some system for this purpose, the various civic organizations of the community would assist financially in supporting the movement.

In the discussion that followed, there seemed to be some doubt as to whether the state would approve the various types of traffic signals or lights controlling motor vehicle traffic. It was voted to authorize the secretary to communicate with the state secretary of highways to obtain information as to the various traffic signals which are legally permitted for erection.

To Inspect Sidewalks
The Safety Committee said that some sidewalks are still in need of repairs or relaying and that an inspection will be made in the near future. Where sidewalks need repairs or relaying property owners will receive notices. It is hoped that all property holders contemplating relaying sidewalks, will make an effort to do the work before the freezing weather arrives.

The Safety Committee also recommended to Council that the meter parking spaces be painted two feet ahead of each meter with a cross mark on the street. Another matter brought up by the Safety Committee was a request from the Alpha Fire Company for an ordinance prohibiting the accumulation of garbage or rubbish which could become fire hazards. It was explained that, with the Council's backing, the fire company would cooperate by making necessary inspections. Following a general discussion, it was decided to place the matter in the hands of the Safety Committee for further investigation.

Will Install Heater
Burgess Herbert J. Motter brought before Council the necessity of having a better heating unit installed at his office in the Alpha engine house, explaining that the present kerosene fired heating unit is very unsatisfactory. Since the remaining portion of the building is gas heated, he recommended that his office be similarly heated. It was learned that a space heater could be installed suitable to heating the room, for less than any other type, and the Council voted to have Councilman Weaver, a plumber, install an automatic natural gas fired space heater in the Burgess' and chief of police's office at the engine house.

Councilman Frock, chairman of the Street Committee, informed Council that Rita Marie Ave. at present is very rough, having only base stone which was placed there years ago. It was suggested that placing of several loads of No. 2 stone on the road, now, would make it much better until such time as further improvement could be made. The Council authorized Mr. Frock to have this done.

Council authorized installation of a new street light on Lumber St., at a point near the intersection of Renner Ave.

Water permits were issued during the months to Mrs. Mary J. O'Kul, 515 S. Queen St., and L. H. Crouse and Sons for service connection at 327 Prince St.

The secretary reported that a four-inch water main authorized for installation on proposed Windsor St., connecting the four-inch and six-inch mains on Prince St. with the four-inch main on N. Queen St., had been completed. However, the fire hydrant located on the corner

Pilot In Test Error

The Air Force announced that Col. Arthur R. DeBolt, 39, of Columbus, O., was the pilot of an automatically jet-controlled B-17 bomber which by mistake fired a rocket that sent a B-17 bomber spinning into flames into the Gulf of Mexico. All eight crewmen on the bomber may have been killed. The Air Force said the pilot, DeBolt, apparently mistook the B-17 "mother" plane for a radio-controlled drone during a test operation. Col. DeBolt was overcome with grief by the tragic error.

of Prince and Windsor Sts. is still in need of correction. It was explained that, when the sidewalk was laid, the hydrant was apparently moved, causing leakage at the bottom elbow, and since the walk had been laid, a longer length of pipe is now necessary between the main and the hydrant. This is in progress of being corrected also.

Issue Building Permits

Building permits were granted to the following: Z. W. Sanders, 37 Lumber St., to remodel interior of brick dwelling for Hadley W. Blocher at 211 E. King St., the former Edith M. Gilbert property; to Roger J. Keefe, 32 N. Queen St., to paint and repair brick office and dwelling with Rittase and Mundorff as contractors; to George W. Basehoar, 29 W. King St., to paint and repair brick dwelling; to POS of A. 10 E. King St., to construct and install a new floor; to Carl T. Bemiller, Hanover, contractor, to excavate and construct a frame dwelling for Mrs. Mary J. O'Kul at 380 Lumber St., and to construct a concrete sidewalk for Clair A. Beamer on Prince St.

Treasurer Flickinger reported the following receipts: Justice of the Peace F. Loy Lindaman, traffic violation fines, $47; LeRoy W. Bish, tax collector, $16,820.88 for real estate, real estate sinking fund, occupation and occupation sinking fund; Vernon C. Reaver, for purchases, $536.15; for amusement tax, $197.56; Burgess Motter, for overtime parking tickets, $20, and miscellaneous, making a total of $17,843.87. Bills were ordered paid as follows: Borough fund account, $1,118.99; water fund account, $2,374.03; sanitary sewer fund account, $789.33, a total of $4,282.35.

Surrender Insurance
President Rittase and Secretary Keefe reported to Council that at a previous meeting there had been some discussion on the pension contract carried for Albert H. Miller Jr., the former chief of police, and that the contract as far as the borough was concerned was worthless. The contract was of value only if Mr. Miller desired to continue payment on it. This matter had been previously discussed with Mr. Miller and during the past month, the president and secretary had executed assignments of the contract to him and it was requested that the action be ratified and confirmed. This was done.

Chief of Police Melvin H. Swab presented the following report: seven special police investigations, two arrests for reckless driving; six for too fast for conditions; one for failure to stop at blinker light; three for passing red light; two accident investigations; two arrests for failure to pay overtime parking meter tickets; one arrest for desertion and non-support; three for assault and battery; one for surety of the peace; three government investigations, military and civil service; 12 overtime parking meter tickets issued; one too close to stop sign ticket; seven funeral escorts; six payroll escorts; parking meter collections from July 18 to August 15, $482.14; four court cases.

To Repair Fence
Councilman Yingling told the group that he had been informed by Arthur E. Buehler, president of the Board of the Littlestown Joint School System that the Jointure would pay 50 per cent of the costs of replacing the line fence between the property of Luther D. Patterson and the borough, which was apparently damaged by the school children, and which had been discussed by the Jointure. Mr. Yingling was authorized to have the fence replaced according to his plan.

Those in attendance at the Tuesday night session were President Roscoe W. Rittase, Lewis H. Fox, Vernon C. Reaver, Charles M. Frock, James V. Yingling and Harry T. Harner; Burgess Herbert J. Motter, Chief of Police Melvin H. Swab;

RUSSIA SENDS V. Z. ZORIN TO U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Soviet Russia has named Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Z. Zorin, who staged the Red coup in Czechoslovakia, as her chief delegate to the United Nations. Jacob A. Malik, the present delegate, is going home for "rest and reassignment."

U. N. officials announced last night that the Soviet government told them of the forthcoming change in a note addressed to the international organization's Secretariat. Zorin is expected to arrive by Sept. 15, just a month before the General Assembly opens its annual fall session.

Called An Expert
Malik, who has been suffering from a heart ailment for some

Treasurer John H. Flickinger; Secretary Roger J. Keefe; Solicitor Daniel E. Teeter, and Dr. Leonard L. Potter, Council will hold another session on Friday, September 5, at 8 o'clock, a joint meeting with the Authority Board.

ESTABLISH 7 FELLOWSHIPS

NEW YORK (AP)—Sinclair Refining Co. has established seven new fellowships for students working for their master's or doctor's degrees. P. C. Spencer, president, announced yesterday.

The new fellowships, which become effective in September at the Universities of Michigan and Nebraska, State College and Washington University (St. Louis), are in addition to six previously established at the Universities of Chicago, Illinois, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Colorado School of Mines and Northwestern University.

All of the previously established fellowships, the first of which was inaugurated in 1946, are being renewed for 1952-53, Spencer stated. Each fellowship is in the amount of $2,500 of which $1,500 will be stipend for the student and $1,000 for tuition, laboratory fees and incidental expenses.

night that the U. S. representative to the six-nation organization now being set up will be William M. Tomlinson, an economic expert. He will be known as "acting U. S. representative to the European Coal and Steel Community."

The new U. S. Embassy will be located in Luxembourg, present home of the coal-steel group's executive authority.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR Third Tunnel Tube

NEW YORK (AP)—The Port of New York Authority yesterday authorized the first contract for work on the $5 million dollar third tube of the Lincoln Tunnel.

The Gull Contracting Co., of Flushing, N. Y., with a low bid of $2,546,925, won the award for digging the New York ventilation shaft and the first land section of the tube.

Work will begin late next month and it is expected to take 21 months to complete this phase of the two-lane artery.

The new tube is expected to be ready for vehicular traffic in 1957. The authority has predicted that 8½ million vehicles will use it annually, increasing the present tunnel capacity by 50 per cent.

OPPOSES U. S. IN WORLD UNIT

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Patriotic Sons of America, ending its annual convention here today, was on record as opposed to the United States joining a world federation of governments.

Opposition to such a proposal was voiced in a resolution passed by the organization last night.

The group also passed a resolution opposing having the United Nations flag fly above the United States flag except over the United Nations Headquarters in New York.

Another resolution recommended that the Communist Party be outlawed in all states, as it is in Pennsylvania, and that the name of the party be kept off election ballots everywhere in the nation.

Other resolutions voiced opposition to socialized medicine and federal aid to education.

The mammoth, now extinct, is believed to be the only elephant type which adapted itself to cold climates.
